MEDIA SUPPLEMENT CREDITS

The 2023 Gator Baseball Media Supplement was written and compiled by the University of Florida Athletics Communications Department.

NIKE is the authentic apparel and footwear of the University of Florida Baseball Program.

COVERING THE GATORS

The University of Florida Communications Department looks forward to serving the members of the media during the 2023 Florida Baseball season. If you will be attending a game at Condron Family Ballpark at Alfred A. McKethan Field, please take a few moments to review the items of interest appearing below.

Requests for working press space and photographic privileges should be made through the Communications Department. If this publication does not answer your questions or you need further assistance, please contact Sullivan Bortner in the Florida Communications Department via email (SullivanB@gators.ufl.edu) or phone (352) 375-4683, ext. 6175.

COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

The Florida Communications Department is located on the third floor of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, across Gale Lemerand Drive from the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. Enter the stairwell to the left of Gate 1 at Florida Field.

MEDIA SERVICES

The 2023 Florida Baseball Media Supplement was compiled and written for the benefit of all readers interested in learning detailed information regarding the University, coaches, staff and student-athletes of the Gator Baseball program. Any additional media information, special requests or needs should be directed to the UF Communications Department, specifically Sullivan Bortner. Members of the media will also be supplied with weekend release packages that contain updated statistics and preview information.

CREDENTIALS AND PRESS GATE

All media attending Florida baseball home games must present a media pass for admission to Condron Family Ballpark. Credentials for home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible, at least 48 hours in advance, to Sullivan Bortner. The press entrance is located next to Gate 4 of Condron Family Ballpark, which is along the first base side of the stadium's exterior. Credentials not mailed or picked up will be left at this entrance and may be picked up by showing proper identification. Florida reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the University.

PARKING

Parking is available in the west lot of Florida Ballpark and the Fifield parking lot located directly across Hull Road. UF Parking restrictions are lifted after 3:30 p.m. on weekdays and all day Saturday/Sunday.

If a schedule change warrants it, the Florida Communications Department reserves the right to issue parking credentials with priority given to regular beat writers.

CONDRON FAMILY BALLPARK GROUND RULES

- The ball is in play from dugout to dugout. A ball entering the dugout, including railings, is considered dead (Book rule).
- If a catch is made (possession established) and a player then falls into the dugout, the hitter is out and runners advance one base. If the player does not fall into the dugout, the ball is in play.
- If a ball enters the tarp area and a player loses sight of it, it is dead (Book rule). If the ball bounces out, it is in play.
- A ball that bounces off the front of any television camera stand is in play. However, if the ball crosses the plane of the TV stand, it is considered dead.
- All balls that enter still photography areas are live.

INTERVIEW POLICY

Player interviews are arranged through the Communications Department. We will do our best to coordinate an interview time that is convenient to both the student-athlete and the media member. The best time to interview an athlete or head coach Kevin O'Sullivan is during the morning/early afternoon before practice. Following each game, O'Sullivan will do a brief interview with the Gators IMG Sports Network (official radio partner) and then meet with the media. Following games, players will be available upon request. All interview requests should be provided to Sullivan Bortner in the press box prior to the conclusion of the game. The UF clubhouse and dugout are closed to the media.

Due to new NCAA policys, no player media interviews may be granted on official days off. During the season, the team is typically off on Mondays.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers are required to shoot from designated areas. There are to be no cameras allowed behind the center field fence other than the originating TV network. Photographers are also not permitted in or between the dugouts. Please stay within these parameters.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Updated cumulative statistics, game notes, rosters and scorecards will be available in the press box at each home game. A final NCAA box score will be furnished to the media at the completion of each game. An official scorer is assigned to all home games, and Sullivan Bortner will keep the media informed of all scoring decisions, notable facts and records. Condron Family Ballpark's press box will be available for writers to work from after each game.

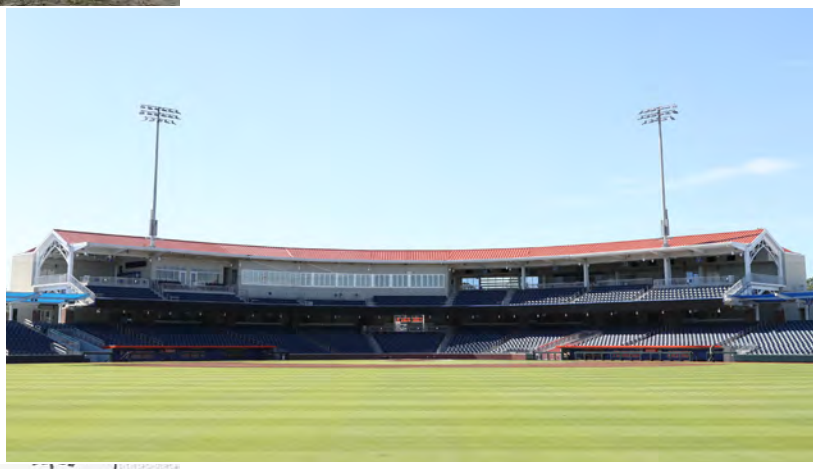
CONDRON FAMILY BALLPARK at ALFRED A. McKETHAN FIELD

"You get one chance to build these types of facilities ... facilities that will change the landscape of a program for generations to come. It's exciting to think of the impact the new ballpark will have on future Gators players, coaches and fans."
--Scott Stricklin, Athletics Director

On February 8, 2019, the University Athletic Association broke ground on Condron Family Ballpark. Construction on the (estimated) $65 million ballpark, located on the southwest part of the University of Florida campus adjacent to Dizney Stadium, was completed in June 2020.

Condron Family Ballpark features a 360-degree open concourse, shade structure for fans, multiple seating and game experience options, high-definition video and sound, enhanced concession space and food options, and multiple prominent entry gates.



All permanent seats feature chairbacks and there are multiple premium seating options, in addition to grass berms and non-traditional seating that will bring capacity to more than 7,000. There are over 4,000 chairback seats, and 700-plus fans are able to enjoy new club level seating.

CONDRON FAMILY BALLPARK at ALFRED A. McKETHAN FIELD (Capacity: 7,000)

Student-athletes have a private nutrition area, team lounge, film room, team meeting room, expanded locker room, indoor pitching and batting cages, and an enhanced training and rehabilitation area. The staff has individual office space for all coaches and a reception area celebrating the program's achievements.

"The place (is) incredible. As soon as you drive up there, see that thing dominate the horizon, it makes an incredible first impression. It's the best baseball program in college baseball, and it deserves to have a top-notch facility. Now it does."
--Aaron Fitt, D1Baseball

"I think the biggest takeaway that I've had is it's hard to describe how nice this place is in just a normal conversation. You almost have to see it for yourself to understand how nice this is. It's turned out even better than I thought it would."
--Kevin O'Sullivan, Head Coach

REMEMBERING ALFRED A. McKETHAN STADIUM at PERRY FIELD

2020 marked the final season at Alfred A. McKethan Stadium at Perry Field. The friendly confines of McKethan Stadium were an important ingredient to the success of Gators Baseball for more than two decades. From its opening in 1988 until its final season in 2020, Florida was one of the toughest teams in the nation to defeat at home, posting a 911-303 (.750) record at McKethan Stadium.

Head coach Kevin O'Sullivan logged a 366-104 (.779) overall record, and an eye-popping 85-16 (.837) mark in regular-season series at McKethan Stadium in the first 13 years of his tenure.

The Gators ran off a school-record 29-game home winning streak from May 2015 through April 8, 2016, won 12 NCAA Regionals, and captured eight NCAA Super Regional titles at McKethan Stadium.

McKethan Stadium (also referred to as "The Mac"), formerly located on Stadium Road, gave the Gators one of the most unique ballparks in college baseball upon its inaugural season in 1988.

The $2.4-million stadium's initial construction and refurbishment – which featured a 2,500-seat grandstand with 800 chair backs, a new press box, concession stands, and restrooms – in 1987 was made possible through the generosity of Alfred A. McKethan, a major benefactor to the University of Florida in many ways throughout his lifetime.

"Baseball always had been my first love. The facility we have at home (Emerson Field at Hernando High School) looked better than at the university," McKethan told The Tampa Tribune for its Feb. 23, 1988 story which detailed the project's completion. "I challenged fellow (Bull Gator Club) members to match me dollar for dollar and let us bring baseball at Florida to the level with football and basketball facilities."

McKethan, who was chairman of the board of Brooksville's Sun Bank & Trust at the time, presented the University Athletic Association with just over 10,000 shares of Sun Bank stock, which amounted to a $500,000 donation. Matching funds from the state and McKethan's fellow Bull Gator Club members covered the remaining costs.

Although the Gators dropped their first home game of the 1988 season (a 3-1 loss to Western Carolina), they won the first game of a doubleheader against Miami on Feb. 23, when an official stadium dedication was held in McKethan's honor. McKethan threw out the ceremonial first pitch ahead of Florida's 3-2 victory over the Hurricanes.

McKethan Stadium was built around Perry Field, which became Florida's home ballpark in 1949. The field drew its namesake from Carl E. "Tootie" Perry, a two-way offensive and defensive lineman for the Gators football team in 1916 and 1919-21; he earned All-Southern honors in 1920 and 1921, and served as team captain the latter season. A Gainesville product, Perry's family owned the land which became the Gators' home baseball stadium and track and field complex. Perry's family donated the land to the University with the stipulation the field be named for their son. Upon graduation, Perry became the official "Waterboy" for the baseball team and faithfully attended numerous Gators games.

The ballpark was also named Percy Beard Stadium before it was renamed Alfred A. McKethan Stadium at Perry Field in 1988.

Lights were installed at Perry Field in 1977, courtesy of a generous contribution from New York Yankees owner George Steinbrenner. Florida christened Steinbrenner's donation with an exhibition game against the Yankees that season.

A home team dugout was constructed at Perry Field in 1981, thanks to a $10,000 donation by former Gators catcher and football quarterback Tom Shannon. The construction included a training room and storage area.

"Its roof serves as a photographer's paradise and the whole thing looks like a 7-Eleven," an editor for The Tampa Tribune wrote in a March 10, 1981 story about the project and another Gators-Yankees exhibition game the day prior – which saw Reggie Jackson finish 0-for-2 as a designated hitter against Gators starting pitcher Larry Mikesell.

At that time, Perry Field was infamous for a hill in left field which rose 30 feet to the wall. The Tampa Tribune story described how "a left fielder must chug uphill over an old sewer line in pursuit of a ball" and that "Steinbrenner winced each time outfielder Dave Winfield risked those expensive legs of his in the mountain climb" throughout the March 9, 1981 exhibition game.

A construction project in the summer of 1995 added 1,000 seats to the main grandstand of McKethan Stadium, which replaced seating the facility lost as a result of prior construction and an expansion of the press box.

The following year, a $350,000 plaza development project created a courtyard atmosphere around the main grandstand, as well as a new main entrance to the ballpark.

In the fall of 1996, the press box was rebuilt with a gift of $300,000 from Mr. McKethan.

Two significant upgrades were made in the summer of 1997. First, the playing field was leveled and new grass was planted. Second, the stadium's capacity increased to 5,000 after the addition of seats along the left field line and beyond the left field fence.

Those improvements made "The Mac" one of the best stadiums in college baseball. When Baseball America released a list of the Best College Baseball Stadiums in its January 1998 magazine issue, McKethan Stadium was ranked No. 7 nationally and No. 1 in the state of Florida.

McKETHAN STADIUM ATTENDANCE NOTES

Florida broke its attendance record in 2018, hosting 165,551 fans - a school record - over 41 home games and its highest ever average attendance (4,038). In 2016, the Gators recorded their highest game attendnace in school history (6,244 vs. Mississippi State, 4/9).

At McKethan Stadium, Florida Baseball...

- Attracted over 3 million fans since the stadium opened in 1988
- Averaged over 3,000+ fans per game in 14 of its final 15 seasons
- Welcomed over 100,000+ fans per season in 13 of its final 15 years
- Registered 62 crowds of 5,000-plus fans
- Ranked among the nation's top 15 schools in college baseball attendance in 21 of its last 23 seasons
- Rated among the nation's top 25 schools in attendance for 25 consecutive seasons
- Hosted 16 NCAA Regionals and nine NCAA Super Regionals

REMEMBERING ALFRED A. McKETHAN STADIUM at PERRY FIELD

A $13-million expansion to McKethan Stadium and the adjacent Lemerand Athletic Center further enhanced the complex upon its completion in September 2006.

The construction project created additional stadium seating and a baseball-specific building which included a training facility, video room, offices and locker rooms, as well as a new bullpen and batting cage building. The building's roof became the Don and Irene Dizney Plaza, a viewing deck which overlooked the field from foul territory in left field. Other major donors for the plaza included Gary and Nancy Condron, Rob Gidel, Tommy Oakley, George Sanders, and W. Kelly Smith.

Those projects brought McKethan Stadium's seating capacity up to 5,500 (5,100 grandstand seats; 400 bleacher seats in left field).

From 1911 through 1948, Florida played its home baseball games at Fleming Field, which stretched from Thomas Hall to Gale Lemerand Drive (east to west), and University Avenue to what is currently the north end zone of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Steve Spurrier-Florida Field. Florida fielded its first varsity baseball team in 1912.

Five Major League Baseball teams participated in exhibition games, and at least 23 Hall of Fame inductees – including Babe Ruth and Mel Ott – played at Fleming Field between 1919 and 1929, according to a story published by The Gainesville Sun.

Fleming Field, which also served as the home of Florida football games from 1911 through 1930, was named in honor of Francis Philip Fleming, Florida's 15th governor, in October 1915. Before it was renamed, the site was referred to as the University Athletic Grounds, or the University Athletic Field.

Prior to 1911, the university's home baseball and football games were held at a downtown stadium in the Porters Community. In January 1911, the UAA purchased the ballpark's wooden fence and grandstand and moved them to the site which eventually became Fleming Field.

ALFRED A. MCKETHAN (1908-2002)

A native Floridian, Mr. Alfred A. McKethan distinguished himself in his profession and service to the state of Florida. He served as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Sun Bank and Trust Company (formerly Hernando State Bank) from 1942-94, at which time he retired. At the age of 38, McKethan became the youngest president of the Florida Bankers Association. Along with his brother, John W. McKethan, he established the Brooksville Rock Company, which later became known as the Florida Mining and Materials Corporation.

McKethan was also a citrus grower, serving as the Director and Chairman of the Brooksville Citrus Growers Association for 40 years, and as Director of the Florida Citrus Exchange for 15 years. He was a board member and Chairman for the Florida State Road Department and was the first Chairman of the Southwest Florida Water Management District. In addition, the Sunshine Skyway Bridge across Tampa Bay was due in part from the works of McKethan, as well as the initial planning of the Florida Turnpike.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida as an honors graduate in 1931, and maintained close ties as an alumnus. In 1981, it was McKethan who became the first eminent scholar under a new law that provided matching funds from the state to create chairs at Florida universities if the private sector donated $600,000. He later made his donation to UF's College of Business Administration. Also active on campus, McKethan was a member of the President's Council, a long-time Bull Gator and had been an instrumental and active member of Gator Boosters.

A Distinguished Director of Gator Boosters, he was a major benefactor to the University of Florida in many ways over the years. An avid baseball fan, McKethan attended games whenever possible each Gator season. The original 1988 stadium construction and refurbishment was made possible through his generous $2.4-million contribution. In 1996, college baseball's fanciest and most luxurious press box was rebuilt with the aid of an additional gift of $300,000 from McKethan.

"When you talk of Gator spirit and love for the University," said former Florida football coach Steve Spurrier, "Alfred McKethan embodies what that is all about."

McKethan passed away in April of 2002 at the age of 93 and the Gator players and coaching staff honored him by wearing black A.A.M. patches on their hats. His initials were also put above the scoreboard at the stadium bearing his name.

Kevin O'Sullivan and his staff transformed the Gators into one of the marquee programs in college baseball, winning the program's first national title in 2017 and turning the program into a regular at the College World Series in Omaha. O'Sullivan will enter the 2023 season with a program-record 627 career victories, having eclipsed Dave Fuller's previous school record of 556 wins on March 9, 2021.

During a tenure marked by tireless recruiting and fundamental coaching, O'Sullivan has overseen the Orange and Blue's progression up the national ladder, punctuated by seven trips to the NCAA College World Series in the 2010s. Since O'Sullivan's first season in 2008, Florida leads the nation in top-eight national seeds (nine) and CWS Appearances (seven), while being tied for the lead in NCAA Tournament Bids (14) and Super Regionals hosted (eight).

Florida has earned a national seed for the NCAA tournament 11 times in the 14 full seasons under O'Sullivan, more than any other school in that span. UF is the only school in the country to earn the No. 1 overall seed three times, having done so in 2012, 2016 and 2018. The Gators' 14-season NCAA Tournament streak is also the third-longest active streak in the nation.

The Gators have won five Southeastern Conference titles (2010-11-14-17-18) and six SEC Eastern Division titles under O'Sullivan. In SEC regular season play, Florida's 257 wins and .613 winning percentage since O'Sullivan's arrival both lead the conference.

Florida has dominated rivalries during O'Sullivan's tenure, none more so than the ones with Florida State and Miami. Under O'Sullivan, the Gators are 69-35 against FSU and Miami. The gulf between the three programs is even wider since 2010, with the Gators holding a 63-26 record. Florida rattled off an 11-game winning streak in its series with FSU as well. Adding Georgia to the mix, Florida is 97-51 against its three primary rivals under O'Sullivan.

Lengthy Stretches of Dominance

Prior to O'Sullivan's arrival, the stretch of seasons from 1996-98 was often pointed to as the best run in Gators history, with those teams being a combined 136-60 (.694) with CWS appearances in 1996 and 1998, a pair of SEC titles ('96 and '98), and three SEC East crowns. Florida has outdone that twice under O'Sullivan.

The four-year stretch from 2015-2018 is perhaps the best in program history, as the Gators compiled a 205-72 (.740) record, two SEC titles, and advanced to the CWS all four years with a national title in 2017. For the first time ever, Florida won more than 50 games for three-consecutive years, notching 52 wins each season from 2015-17. The four consecutive trips to Omaha put Florida on a list of just five programs with four straight CWS appearances since the tournament expanded to 64 teams. In addition, UF became the first school since the 1990s to reach the College World Series seven times in a single decade.

From 2010-12, the Gators were 147-56 (.724) with three straight CWS appearances for the first time in school history, three straight NCAA Regional and Super Regional crowns, consecutive SEC Championships and a pair of SEC Eastern Division titles in 2010 and 2011, along with the league's tournament championship in 2011.

More broadly, Florida put together eight seasons with 40-plus wins in the 2010s. Only five other Division I programs accomplished the feat. The Gators' 455 total wins from 2010-19 ranked fourth nationally.

Major League Baseball Output

Since O'Sullivan's arrival, 99 Gators have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, the third-highest total among SEC programs. In addition, 29 Gators have reached the big leagues since being drafted under O'Sullivan, second nationally behind Arizona. Infielder Jonathan India (Reds), right-handed pitcher Jackson Kowar (Royals) and catcher Taylor Gushue (Cubs) made their debuts in 2021 while catcher Mark Kolozsvary (Reds), right-hander Alex Faedo (Tigers), left-hander Danny Young (Mariners) and utilityman Dalton Guthrie (Phillies) all debuted in 2022.

Florida boasts 11 first-round selections dating back to 2011, again the second-most in the nation. In 2018, the Gators had three first-round picks for the first time in program history: India went No. 5 overall to the Cincinnati Reds, Singer was picked 18th by the Kansas City Royals and Kowar was the 33rd selection by the Royals.

When Dalton Guthrie debuted with the Phillies on Tuesday, Sept. 7, he became the 13th player from the 2015 Florida team to make it to the MLB. That equates to 37.1% of the 35-man roster from that year. In addition to Guthrie, the list includes: first baseman and 2019 NL Rookie of the Year Pete Alonso (Mets), right-hander Shaun Anderson (Giants), outfielder Harrison Bader (Cardinals), right-hander Dane Dunning (White Sox), catcher Taylor Gushue (Cubs), right-hander Eric Hanhold (Mets), shortstop Richie Martin (Orioles), left-hander Bobby Poyner (Red Sox), left-hander A.J. Puk (A's), right-hander Justin Shafer (Blue Jays), left-hander Kirby Snead (Blue Jays) and left-hander Danny Young (Mariners).

Another 12 players from the 2014 roster have reached the big leagues as well, while 10 members of the 2010 club reached the Major Leagues: left-hander Kevin Chapman (Astros), outfielder Matt den Dekker (Mets), right-hander Anthony DeSclafani (Marlins), shortstop Nolan Fontana (Angels), left-hander Brian Johnson (Red Sox), right-hander Austin Maddox (Red Sox), left-hander Nick Maronde (Angels), left-hander Paco Rodriguez (Dodgers), outfielder Preston Tucker (Astros) and catcher Mike Zunino (Mariners).

Rodriguez was the first player from the 2012 MLB Draft to reach the major leagues, while Zunino became the first position player from the 2012 MLB Draft to reach the big leagues.

Season Capsules

2022 – 42-24 (15-15 SEC), made 14th-consecutive NCAA Regional

After opening the first 40 games of the season with a 23-17 record (.575) and 6-12 mark in SEC play, Florida went 19-7 (.731) down the stretch, winning the final four SEC series of the season (9-3) while posting a 13-5 record against conference teams. That included a trip to the SEC Tournament Championship, as the Gators were one of two teams to make it to the SEC Tourney semifinals each of the last two years.

Florida continued its program-best streak of 14-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, a streak which ranks third nationally. The 2022 season marked the 18th time that Florida has hosted an NCAA Regional in addition to the program's 37th NCAA Tournament appearance.

O'Sullivan won his 600th career game with a 13-6 win at Alabama on March 19. O'Sullivan finished the 2022 campaign with a 627-302 (.675) record, which ranks third in terms of winning percentage among active DI coaches.

The Gators hit 121 home runs as a team – the second-highest total in program history. For the first time ever, two Gators hit 20-plus home runs in the same season: outfielders Wyatt Langford (26) and Jud Fabian (24). Langford's 26 home runs tied Matt LaPorta's team record set in 2005.

Langford also paced the Gators in batting average (.355), on-base percentage (.447), slugging percentage (.719), hits (91), runs (73), RBI (63), triples (three) and total bases (184). As a result, Langford became a First Team All-American including the 25th different All-American in Orange & Blue under O'Sullivan.

Under O'Sullivan's tutelage, starting pitcher Brandon Sproat was tremendous for the Gators down the stretch, going 5-0 with a 1.59 ERA and .218 batting average against in his last six starts of the season. Sproat filled in valiantly following the season-ending injury to then-ace Hunter Barco, finishing with a 9-4 record, 3.41 ERA, .251 BAA and 82 strikeouts across 89 2/3 innings pitched.

Adding to O'Sullivan's success in developing young pitchers, right-handed reliever Blake Purnell was named a Freshman All-American, breaking out with a 3-3 record, four saves, 2.86 ERA and .258 BAA. That brought O'Sullivan's number of Freshman All-Americans to 22 combining for 49 various honors. He pitched in eight more games than the next closest Gator, totaling 50 1/3 innings across 36 appearances. Right-hander Brandon Neely earned All-SEC Freshman Team honors, posting a 3-3 record, 3.76 ERA, .205 BAA and 74 strikeouts across 69 1/3 innings spanning 21 appearances (10 starts).

2021 – 38-22 (17-13 SEC), made 13th-consecutive NCAA Regional

Entering the campaign as the unanimous No. 1 team in the country after posting a 16-1 record in 2020, the Gators opened the season with a three-game series against No. 21 Miami at the newly-minted Florida Ballpark. After dropping two-of-three to the rival Hurricanes, Florida proceeded to go 8-0 in its remaining home series throughout the duration of the season, featuring series wins against No. 3 Ole Miss, No. 2 Vanderbilt and Georgia.

Along the way, O'Sullivan passed Dave Fuller to become the winningest coach in program history with victory number 557 against Georgia State on March 9, 2021. O'Sullivan concluded the year with a 585-278 record (.678), ranking third in terms of winning percentage among active Division I head baseball coaches.

Wrapping up the regular season at 35-19 (17-13 SEC) and an impressive 28-7 (.800) mark at home, the Gators traveled to the SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala. For the first time in 21 years, Florida posted a 3-0 record to begin SEC Tournament play, advancing to the semifinal game against No. 4 Tennessee after defeating Kentucky, No. 8 Mississippi State and Alabama by a combined 24-4 margin. The Gators ultimately came up short in the SEC Semifinals versus the Volunteers, falling by a 4-0 score to conclude the team's time in Hoover. Nathan Hickey (third base), Sterlin Thompson (outfield) and Jacob Young (outfield) all earned spots on the 2021 SEC All-Tournament Team.

On Selection Monday, Florida earned the No. 15-national seed and the rights to host the 2021 NCAA Gainesville Regional, which brought No. 2-seed Miami, No. 3-seed South Alabama and No.-4 seed South Florida to town. In the end, the Gators went 0-2 to conclude Regional play without a victory, effectively ending the season with a 38-22 overall record.

Outfielder Jud Fabian was named First Team All-SEC and a Third Team All-American (Collegiate Baseball), batting .249/.364/.560 while becoming just the fifth Gator to ever hit 20 home runs in a single season. Fabian also garnered SEC All-Defensive Team honors in the outfield with a .971 fielding percentage and two outfield assists across 139 chances.

Catcher Nathan Hickey and left-handed pitcher Hunter Barco were both selected to the SEC All-Newcomer Team. Hickey led the Gators with a .317 batting average, .435 on-base percentage and 50 RBI, while Barco paced the team with 10 wins and finished with a 4.01 ERA to pair with 94 strikeouts across 83 innings pitched. Outfielder Sterlin Thompson chipped in an SEC All-Freshman Team accolade, slashing .301/.396/.470 with five home runs and 27 RBI in his debut season in Gainesville.

2020 – 16-1, No. 1 in final rankings

Florida won its first 16 games of the season, eclipsing the school record for consecutive wins to open a season previously set with 11-0 starts in 1989 and 2002. The Gators' winning streak was also the third-longest in school history, behind an 18-game run in 2012, and a 17-game streak in 2016. The run of season-opening wins included a sweep at No. 1 Miami, a series in which the Gators have won 15 of the last 18 meetings.

Following its only loss of the year, the COVID-19 pandemic led to the season's cancellation. Florida finished as the No. 1-ranked team all four of collegiate baseball's rankings, though only Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and the USA Today Coaches' Poll officially published rankings following the season's cancellation.

At the time of the cancellation, Florida ranked 10th nationally in fielding percentage (.984), 12th in home runs (21) and 16th in earned run average (2.41). The bullpen was just as impressive as the staff as a whole, as it ended the season with a 1.76 ERA across 76.2 innings pitched. Sophomore outfielder Jacob Young finished the season with an active 18-game hitting streak, and became the third Gators hitter since the start of 2009 to record seven consecutive multi-hit games (Jonathan India, March 9-21, 2018; Bryson Smith, May 28-June 12, 2011).

A total of 13 Gators made the SEC Academic Honor Roll, and another 10 made the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

The MLB Draft was shortened to five rounds, and although no Gators were selected, junior standouts Jack Leftwich and Tommy Mace opted to return for their senior seasons, and a pair of Gators -- Austin Langworthy and Brady Smith -- signed professional contracts as undrafted free agents.

2019 – 34-26 (13-17 SEC), made 12th-consecutive NCAA Regional

O'Sullivan and the Gators extended the program-best postseason streak to 12 years in a row, earning a spot in the NCAA Lubbock Regional while facing the nation's third-hardest schedule. UF went a combined 18-18 against SEC and ACC opponents to earn an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. Florida went 1-2 and was eliminated despite scoring 29 runs in three games (UF's most in a regional since 2011, when the Gators scored 33 runs).

Four players were drafted from the 2019 squad, including second-round pick Brady McConnell, who hit 15 home runs on the season, the most ever by a UF shortstop. McConnell and Nelson Maldonado earned second-team All-America honors. The Gators had 13 players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and another nine on the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

2018 – 49-21 (20-10 SEC), College World Series qualifiers, SEC Champions, No. 1 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

Florida followed up its first national title by winning its second straight SEC title and earning the No. 1 overall seed for the NCAA Tournament – all while playing against the nation's second-toughest schedule. UF finished in the top 10 of the final polls for the seventh time under O'Sullivan. The Gators made their fourth consecutive trip to Omaha for the College World Series.

Florida went 20-10 in SEC play and clinched the league title with four games remaining. The conference title was Florida's fifth under O'Sullivan, giving him more SEC titles than all but two coaches in conference history (Tilden Campbell, 9; Skip Bertman, 7).

For just the second time in SEC history, the SEC Coach of the Year, SEC Player of the Year and SEC Pitcher of the Year all came from the same school. O'Sullivan earned Coach of the Year honors for the third time, while Jonathan India became the third Gator to be named the league's player of the year, and Brady Singer became the third UF pitcher to earn the award.

Singer was the recipient of the Dick Howser Trophy and was named the National Player of the Year by Baseball America and D1baseball.com; he was a unanimous first-team All-American. India was also a consensus first-team All-American and was selected fifth overall in the 2018 MLB Draft by the Cincinnati Reds.

Closer Michael Byrne earned All-America honors and broke the school record for career saves (35). Senior JJ Schwarz, named the first team captain under O'Sullivan, ended his career with more games played (266) and starts (266) than any player in school history and worked his way up the record books and finished his career second in career RBI (237), third in hits (293) and fourth in home runs (50).

In addition to the team's three first-round picks -- India, Singer and Jackson Kowar -- four other Gators were selected in the 2018 MLB Draft. Schwarz was taken in the eighth round by the Oakland Athletics, infielder Deacon Liput was selected in the 10th round by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Byrne was drafted in the 14th round by the Reds, and senior Nick Horvath was taken by the Baltimore Orioles in the 25th round.

Off the field, the Gators had 12 student-athletes named to the 2018 Spring Academic Honor Roll and six newcomers were named to the 2017-18 First Year Academic Honor Roll.

2017 – 52-19 (21-9 SEC), NCAA College World Series Champions, SEC Champions, No. 3 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

History was made, as Florida won the first national championship in program history, sweeping LSU in the CWS Finals by scores of 4-3 and 6-1 to bring home the trophy. With the title, the Gators became one of six schools to win a national championship in baseball, basketball and football, joining Cal, Michigan, Ohio State, Stanford and UCLA. The Gators were the only program to win a title in each sport in the last 50 years. UF won football titles in 1996, 2006 and 2008, and back-to-back basketball titles in 2006 and 2007.

The Gators finished 52-19 against the nation's toughest schedule, in addition to a 21-9 record in SEC play to win a conference title. Florida won 50-plus games for the sixth time in school history and fourth time under O'Sullivan (previous seasons: 2011, 2015, 2016).

The titles did not come easy, as UF led the nation with 19 one-run wins. The Gators set a school record with 27 saves in 2017, led by Byrne who set a UF single-season record with 19 saves. UF's pitching staff totaled 10 shutouts on the season, most in the SEC and fourth-most in the country. The 10 shutouts were the second-most by Florida in a single season, one shy of the 2011 staff's 11 shutouts.

The pitching staff was led junior All-American Alex Faedo, who anchored the weekend rotation and led the nation with a school-record 157 strikeouts. After setting the school record for strikeouts in a season in 2016, the Gators notched the second-most strikeouts ever with 649 in 2017.

In addition to Faedo, Byrne earned All-America honors and joined catcher JJ Schwarz and right-hander Brady Singer as All-SEC selections. At the conclusion of the season, eight Gators were taken in the 2017 MLB Draft: Faedo (1st round), shortstop Dalton Guthrie (6th round), catcher Mike Rivera (6th round), catcher Mark Kolozsvary (7th round), right-hander David Lee (27th round), right-hander Frank Rubio (29th round), second baseman Deacon Liput (29th round) and Schwarz (38th round).

2016 – 52-16 (19-10 SEC), College World Series qualifiers, No. 1 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

The Gators turned in the best regular season (44-11) in program history and finished with a 52-16 overall record. After earning yet another national seed, this time the top overall spot, Florida advanced to the College World Series for the second year in a row.

On the season, UF had a 16-9 record against ranked opponents and finished the year undefeated in midweek games (14-0). Florida was 19-2 against in-state competition, including a 2-1 series win at No. 6 Miami, and a 5-1 record against Florida State – who the Gators eliminated in the Gainesville Super Regional.

The Gators racked up individual honors as well, with five players earning All-America recognition. Right-handed pitcher Logan Shore was a unanimous first-team selection, while first baseman Peter Alonso and righty Shaun Anderson also earned first-team honors. Alex Faedo and JJ Schwarz garnered All-America honors as well, and Jonathan India and Deacon Liput were Freshman All-America selections.

Shore was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year, just the second player in school history to earn the honor (Justin Hoyman, 2004). Anderson and Shore were All-SEC First Team selections, while Alonso, Guthrie and Rivera earned second-team honors.

Following the year, the Gators had another stellar draft class enter the professional ranks. Florida had an amazing six players drafted in the first three rounds, including a pair of first round picks in A.J, Puk and Dane Dunning. Alonso, Shore and Buddy Reed were selected in the second round, while Anderson went in the third round. Lefties Scott Moss (fourth round) and Kirby Snead (10th round) were also drafted.

2015 – 52-18 (19-11 SEC), College World Series qualifiers, SEC Tournament Champions, No. 4 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

The Gators enjoyed a tremendous season, claiming the SEC Tournament and sweeping both the NCAA Regional and Super Regionals held at McKethan Stadium to make a triumphant return to Omaha, where they finished one win shy of the CWS Championship Series.

O'Sullivan directed the squad to a 52-18 record, with the 52 wins being the second-most in school history. The Gators were 12-3 (.800) during the postseason – 8-2 (.800) in the NCAA Tournament and 4-1 (.800) at the SEC Tournament. And the team set a school record with a .984 fielding percentage, the second-best average in NCAA history.

Florida ranked third in the final polls and ousted Sunshine State rivals Florida State and Miami from the postseason in the same year for the first time in school history. UF boasted a trio of All-Americans: outfielder Harrison Bader, catcher/designated hitter JJ Schwarz, and third baseman Josh Tobias, while second baseman Dalton Guthrie, catcher/designated hitter Mike Rivera and Schwarz were recognized as Freshman All-Americans.

Schwarz was the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) National Freshman Hitter of the Year, as well as Louisville Slugger's Co-Freshman of the Year. Schwarz joined left-hander A.J. Puk, outfielder Buddy Reed and right-hander Logan Shore on the USA Collegiate National Team at season's end.

Continuing the pipeline to the professional ranks, UF had nine players chosen in the MLB Draft. After Martin was a first-round selection, Bader went in the third round to St. Louis, followed by right-hander Eric Hanhold (sixth round, Milwaukee), left-hander Danny Young (eighth round, Toronto), right-hander Taylor Lewis (ninth round, Atlanta), Tobias (10th round, Philadelphia), left-hander Bobby Poyner (14th round, Boston), right-hander Mike Vinson (24th round, Detroit) and right-hander Aaron Rhodes (28th round, Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim).

2014 – 40-23 (21-9 SEC), SEC Champions, No. 2 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

Florida once again turned in a strong campaign, winning its third SEC crown in a five-season span, with O'Sullivan being honored by his peers as the SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in his tenure. O'Sullivan became the fourth Florida skipper to earn the award multiple times, joining Dave Fuller (1952, 1956, 1962), Jack Rhine (1982, 1983) and Joe Arnold (1984, 1988).

At 40-23, UF reached the 40-win plateau for the fifth time in O'Sullivan's tenure. The Gators were 8-1 (.889) against top-five teams, highlighted by a season sweep of No. 1 Florida State for the second time in three years. Florida also went 10-4 (.714) against top-10 foes. The squad was an impressive 16-7 (.696) in contests decided by one run, and they notched 23 victories over teams ranked in the top 50 of the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI).

In conference play, the Gators set a school record with consecutive 12 league victories from April 12-May 9. Florida's 21-9 record in SEC play included sweeps of No. 4 LSU, Georgia, Missouri, and No. 20 Alabama.

Logan Shore was chosen as Perfect Game's National Freshman of the Year and as the SEC Freshman of the Year, becoming the third Gator in O'Sullivan's tenure to receive the league honor (Preston Tucker, 2009; Austin Maddox, 2010). Shore was a consensus Freshman All-American and earned third-team All-America status from Louisville Slugger. Catcher Taylor Gushue was a second-team All-American from Louisville Slugger.

Shore became just the third starting pitcher from Florida to earn first-team All-SEC in the past 11 years, joining Justin Hoyman (2004) and Patrick Keating (2008). Gushue led the SEC with a .389 batting average in conference games, and became the third UF catcher since 1991 to earn a first-team accolade (Mario Linares, 1991; Mike Zunino, 2011-12). Bader was an All-SEC Second Team honoree. The Gators led the conference with three All-SEC Freshman Team recipients: first baseman Peter Alonso, Shore and third baseman John Sternagel. Alonso also earned second-team Freshman All-America from the NCBWA.

Six Gators were chosen in the MLB Draft, with Gushue being first off the board in the fourth round (No. 131 overall to the Pittsburgh Pirates).

2013 – 29-30 (14-16 SEC), NCAA Regional qualifiers

In 2013, the Gators advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth consecutive season, matching the previous longest run in school history (2000-05). It also marked the first time the same coaching staff directed the Orange and Blue into NCAA action six straight times.

Harrison Bader earned a berth on the SEC All-Freshman Team, marking the fifth year in a row a Gators freshman made the team.

Twelve Gators were named to the Spring SEC Academic Honor Roll, and five other players were chosen to the 2012-13 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

Florida had seven players chosen in the 2013 MLB Draft, led by Jonathon Crawford at No. 20 to the Detroit Tigers, marking the highest selection for a Gators pitcher since John Burke was taken at No. 6 overall by the Houston Astros in 1991. Eleven high school signees were picked, with a school-record eight individuals declining contract offers to attend the University of Florida instead.

2012 – 47-20 (18-12 SEC), College World Series qualifiers, No. 1 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

The Gators entered the season as the consensus No. 1 team and occupied the top spot a total of 42 times in the four major polls (12 in NCBWA, 11 in Baseball America, 11 in USA Today/ESPN, eight in Collegiate Baseball) en route to a third consecutive College World Series appearance. It was one of two programs to make each CWS from 2010-12.

With a 47-20 record (UF's fourth consecutive 40-win season) against the No. 2-rated schedule by the NCAA's final RPI, Florida was awarded the top national seed in the NCAA Tournament, its fourth straight year as one of the top eight national seeds. UF swept the NCAA Gainesville Regional with victories over Bethune-Cookman (4-0) and Georgia Tech (6-2, 15-3). The Gators advanced and defeated NC State twice (7-1, 9-8) in the Gainesville Super Regional.

The CWS berth lifted O'Sullivan past Joe Arnold (1988, 1991) and Andy Lopez (1996, 1998) for the most trips to Omaha by a Gators head coach.

The Gators established a school record with an 18-game winning streak from February 21-March 22, and raced out of the gates with a 23-2 record. Florida led the nation in home runs (75) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.65), was second in fewest walks allowed per 9 innings (2.07) and was fourth in WHIP (1.15) during the season. In addition, the pitching staff's earned run average of 2.92 was the lowest for the Orange and Blue since 1983 and ranked eighth nationally.

Mike Zunino was Florida's first-ever winner of the 2012 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award, the Dick Howser Trophy as College Baseball's Player of the Year, and collected the school's first Johnny Bench Award.

The highest MLB Draft pick in school history after being chosen third overall by the Seattle Mariners, Zunino finished as the Gators' "Triple Crown" winner, leading the team in batting average (.322), RBI (67) and homers (19). He also paced the squad in total bases (164), doubles (28), sacrifice flies (11), and slugging percentage (.669). According to the final NCAA statistics, Zunino was first nationally in sacrifice flies, third in doubles, fourth in home runs, fifth in total bases, ninth in doubles per game, 10th in RBI, and 11th in slugging percentage.

Brian Johnson, taken in the first round by the Boston Red Sox at No. 31 overall, became Florida's first winner of the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award. A first-team All-American by the NCBWA and Perfect Game, Johnson was a second-team All-American by Baseball America and Louisville Slugger.

Preston Tucker earned All-America acclaim from the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) for the second straight year, All-SEC honors for the third year in a row, and made the NCAA Gainesville Regional All-Tournament team for the fourth time. He departed Gainesville as the school's all-time leader in games played (265), games started (259), total bases (596), at bats (1,035), hits (341), RBI (258), and doubles (70).

Florida boasted four All-SEC First Team selections for the first time since 1991. O'Sullivan's club had a total of five All-SEC picks, the third straight year that it placed five or more recipients on the list. Nolan Fontana and Tucker joined an elite group of Gators on the diamond who achieved All-SEC status three times, a group that included Josh Adams (2008-09, 2011), Mike Stanley (1982, 1984-85), Marc Valdes (1991-93) and Brad Wilkerson (1996-98). Johnson, Steven Rodriguez, Tucker, and Zunino were first-team selections, while Nolan Fontana earned second-team recognition, and Josh Tobias was chosen to the league's All-Freshman Team. Fontana was an SEC All-Defensive Team member for the third year in a row, matching Matt den Dekker (2008-10) for the most appearances on the list by a Gator. Zunino was a repeat SEC All-Defensive Team honoree.

Jonathon Crawford became the first Gators hurler to register a complete-game no-hitter since Burke accomplished the feat in a 2-0 shutout of Furman on May 23, 1991. Crawford overpowered Bethune-Cookman on June 1 in the NCAA Gainesville Regional opener. A member of the 2012 USA Collegiate National Team, Crawford turned in a 3-0 record over the summer with a 2.10 ERA, highlighted by a pair of victories over powerhouse Cuba in Havana. He earned a bronze medal at the Haarlem Honkbal Week in the Netherlands, starting the semifinal contest against Cuba and carrying a shutout into the eighth inning.

2011 – 53-19 (22-8 SEC), College World Series Runner-Up Finishers, SEC Champions, SEC Tournament Champions, No. 2 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

O'Sullivan earned College Coach of the Year honors from Baseball America, becoming the first coach from UF to collect the publication's yearly accolade. On its way to a school-record 53 victories, Florida earned a trip to Omaha in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Although the Gators fell in the CWS Championship Series, they notched a second-place showing for the second time in school history (2005).

O'Sullivan's team secured its spot in the final round by downing Texas (8-4) and knocking off league rival Vanderbilt twice (3-1, 6-4). The No. 2 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, Florida swept the NCAA Gainesville Regional with victories over Manhattan (17-3) and in-state rival Miami (5-4, 11-4), then defeated Mississippi State twice (11-1, 3-4, 8-6) in a classic Gainesville Super Regional to advance to the College World Series.

The 53 wins marked the first time since 1991 and the third time in program history the Gators finished a season with 50-plus wins. UF stayed in the top five all season long in the USA Today/ESPN rankings, spent nine weeks at No. 1 in Baseball America, and eight weeks in Collegiate Baseball Newspaper's top spot.

The Gators blanked Vanderbilt, 5-0, to capture the 2011 SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala. It was the first time in 20 years Florida won the league's tournament ,and the triumph represented the first time since 1988 the Orange and Blue won both the SEC regular season and SEC Tournament titles in the same season.

With a 22-8 regular season in the SEC, which matched South Carolina and Vanderbilt for the league's best record, Florida became the East winner for the third year in a row. The Gators won eight of their 10 SEC series, and the team's 22 victories in league play matched the school record set in 2010. The pitching staff twirled 11 shutouts in 72 games, breaking the previous school record for shutouts (10 in 1970).

Mike Zunino was named the SEC Player of the Year, joining Matt LaPorta (2005, 2007) as the only Gators to earn the league's top accolade. Karsten Whitson was tabbed as the National Freshman Pitcher of the Year by Perfect Game, and a Freshman All-American by four different organizations. Preston Tucker and Zunino were named All-Americans, and were joined on the All-South Region squad by Josh Adams and Hudson Randall.

A school-record 11 players were chosen in the 2011 MLB Draft: Nick Maronde (3rd round, Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), Anthony DeSclafani (6th round, Toronto), Alex Panteliodis (9th round, New York Mets), right-hander Tommy Toledo (11th round, Milwaukee), Adams (13th round, Florida), Tucker (16th round, Colorado), catcher Ben McMahan (23rd round, Milwaukee), right-hander Matt Campbell (24th round, Philadelphia), right-hander Greg Larson (29th round, Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), outfielder Bryson Smith (34th round, Cincinnati) and outfielder Tyler Thompson (46th round, Washington). An additional eight signees were picked, four of whom turned down professional contracts. The trio of Larson, Thompson, and Tucker elected to remain in school. Before O'Sullivan's arrival, the Gators' previous record picks in a single MLB Draft was eight in both 1999 and 2002.

Florida also registered a school-record 24-game home winning streak at McKethan Stadium from April 24, 2010-March 8, 2011.

2010 – 47-17 (22-8 SEC), College World Series qualifiers, SEC Champions, No. 3 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

Returning a talented nucleus and welcoming a recruiting class hailed as the nation's best by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball, O'Sullivan directed the Gators to a 47-17 overall record which featured a program-record 22 wins in SEC play, as the Gators captured their first SEC title in five years. Voted the SEC Coach of the Year, O'Sullivan molded a lineup that featured five All-SEC recipients and a record five Baseball America Freshman All-Americans into a cohesive unit which secured Florida's first College World Series berth since 2005.

Facing a schedule ranked second in the country, the Gators won nine of their 10 SEC series and defeated South Carolina on the final weekend of the regular season to claim the SEC title. Seeded third in the NCAA Tournament, O'Sullivan's club battered Bethune-Cookman (7-3), Oregon State (10-2), and Florida Atlantic (15-0) in the NCAA Gainesville Regional, marking the first time since 2004 and 2005 the Gators won an NCAA Regional in consecutive seasons. The following weekend, UF swept in-state rival Miami in the Gainesville Super Regional to secure a CWS spot for the event's final go-round at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Noted for his pitching acumen, O'Sullivan oversaw a Florida pitching staff that lowered its team earned run average for the third year in a row (4.13) and finished second in the nation in fewest walks allowed per nine innings (2.15). UF's starting pitchers were 30-15 with a 3.94 ERA, and its bullpen was 17-2 and tied a school record with 18 saves.

Kevin Chapman was chosen as a third-team All-American by the NCBWA, becoming the first Gators pitcher to earn All-America status since Justin Hoyman in 2004. He also garnered second-team All-South Region accolades and was the lone UF representative on the All-SEC First Team.

The quintet of Nolan Fontana, Brian Johnson, Austin Maddox, Hudson Randall and Mike Zunino thrived in their debut seasons under O'Sullivan, as all of them achieved Freshman All-America and Freshman All-SEC status. The SEC's Freshman of the Year, Maddox was named a third-team All-American by the NCBWA. The slugger was the first Florida freshman to earn All-America recognition since Brad Wilkerson in 1996.

Fontana became the first player in school history to be named to the Rawlings NCAA Division I Gold Glove Team and was the lone freshman selected to the nine-player positional squad. He and Johnson each brought home a silver medal from the V FISU World University Championships in Tokyo while playing for the 2010 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. They were the only freshmen on the roster.

2009 – 42-22 (19-11 SEC), NCAA Super Regional qualifiers, No. 8 overall seed for NCAA Tournament

In the second year under O'Sullivan's tutelage, the Gators captured the SEC East Division title, rolled through the NCAA Gainesville Regional, and earned the squad's first Super Regional berth in four years. Florida finished one game back in the race for the SEC Championship. Of Florida's 42 wins, 27 of them were come-from-behind victories, with 13 of them coming against league foes. After capping its season with the program's third NCAA Super Regional appearance, UF finished in the top 15 of all four of the collegiate baseball polls.

Evidence of increased player development under O'Sullivan was reflected by a school-record 10 Gators and 12 signees being chosen in the 2009 MLB Draft. The previous high of eight UF players was set in 1999 and equaled in 2002. The 10 Gators chosen was the second-highest total among all collegiate programs in 2009, only trailing Georgia's 11.

2008 – 34-24 (17-13 SEC), NCAA Super Regional qualifiers

In his first year as a head coach, O'Sullivan directed the Gators to their first NCAA Regional appearance since 2005. Florida also finished second in the SEC East Division after being picked 11th in the 12-team league during the preseason. O'Sullivan was the fourth Florida head coach to lead the team into NCAA postseason play in his debut season.

The club's 34 wins included series victories over both of the SEC's division winners and College World Series representatives -- Georgia and LSU.

When O'Sullivan took over the program, one of his top priorities was turning around the team's pitching staff, which registered an SEC-worst 5.27 ERA in 2007. Not only did the 2008 squad lower its ERA to 4.39, Florida led the league in conference play with a 4.00 ERA. Offensively, UF's team batting average went from .290 to .304, and the club's .305 showing in the 30 conference games led the SEC. The Gators also increased their fielding percentage and turned a league-leading 72 double plays, the fourth-most in school history.

Three Gators -- Josh Adams, Matt den Dekker, and Patrick Keating -- achieved All-SEC First Team status, Florida's highest total since it had four first-teamers in 1991. Adams was also a unanimous pick on the SEC All-Freshman Team and collected Freshman All-America acclaim from three different organizations. Keating became the first Gators pitcher to garner All-South Region First Team honors from the ABCA since Justin Hoyman in 2004. Adams, a second-team honoree, was the first freshman on the squad since Brad Wilkerson in 1996. Meanwhile, den Dekker earned a spot on the league's first-ever All-Defensive Team and represented the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team that was a perfect 24-0 on its 2008 summer tour.

Seventeen members of O'Sullivan's inaugural team were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The total matched the highest number of Academic All-SEC recipients in program history, equaling the 17 from 2003. It marked the sixth consecutive year the program reached double-digit honorees. An additional five student-athletes earned a spot on the league's Freshman Academic Honor Roll, tying the Gators' best performance.

Personal

O'Sullivan graduated with honors from Virginia with a bachelor's degree in education/sports medicine in 1991. In Charlottesville, he was a member of Virginia's Captain Council and Student-Athlete Mentor Program. He later earned a master's degree in exercise science & wellness from Florida Atlantic.

O'Sullivan starred at Virginia as a catcher in 1990 and 1991, where he hit a combined .351. He was a first-team All-ACC and All-ACC Tournament recipient both years and earned a spot on the ACC Academic Honor Roll in 1990. He also played for Florida Community College in 1988 and 1989.

O'Sullivan has two children, a daughter (Payton Tyler O'Sullivan) and a son (Finn Thomas O'Sullivan).

4th SEASON AT FLORIDA

CHUCK JEROLOMAN ASSISTANT COACH

During Jeroloman's third campaign with the Gators in 2022, Florida continued its program-best streak of 14-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, which ranks third nationally. The 2022 season marked the 18th time that Florida has hosted an NCAA Regional in addition to the program's 37th NCAA Tournament appearance. After opening the first 40 games of the season with a 23-17 record (.575) and 6-12 mark in SEC play, Florida went 19-7 (.731) down the stretch, winning the final four SEC series of the season (9-3) while posting a 13-5 record against SEC teams. That included a trip to the SEC Tournament Championship, as the Gators were one of two teams to make it to the SEC Tourney semifinals each of the last two years.

Thanks in large part to Jeroloman, the Gators hit 121 home runs as a team in 2022 – the second-highest total in program history. For the first time ever, two Gators hit 20-plus home runs in the same season: outfielders Wyatt Langford (26) and Jud Fabian (24). Langford's 26 home runs tied Matt LaPorta's team record set in 2005. Highlighted by his memorable, two-run walk-off home run over No. 20 Florida State on May 17, outfielder Sterlin Thompson turned in a sensational sophomore season at the plate as well. Across 254 at bats, Thompson batted .354/.443/.563 with a career-high 11 home runs, two triples, team-high 16 doubles, 59 runs, 51 RBI, 143 total bases and a team-high 10 steals.

In Jeroloman's second year on staff in 2021, the Gators went 8-1 in home series in the inaugural season at Florida Ballpark, ending the year on an eight-series home winning streak. En route to earning a school-record 13th-straight NCAA Regional berth, the Gators secured series wins over No. 3 Ole Miss, No. 2 Vanderbilt and Georgia. The Gators also started 3-0 at the SEC Tournament for the first time in 21 years, outscoring Kentucky, No. 8 Mississippi State and Alabama by a combined 24-4 margin.

In 2020, Jeroloman's first season on staff, Florida won its first 16 games, eclipsing the school record for consecutive wins to open a season previously set with 11-0 starts in 1989 and 2002. The Gators' winning streak was also the third-longest in school history, behind an 18-game run in 2012, and a 17-game streak in 2016. The run of season-opening wins included a sweep at No. 1 Miami, a series in which the Gators have won 15 of the last 18 meetings.

Following Florida's only loss of the year, the COVID-19 pandemic led to the season's cancellation. Florida finished as the No. 1-ranked team all four of collegiate baseball's rankings, though only Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and the USA Today Coaches' Poll officially published rankings following the season's cancellation.

At the time of the cancellation, Florida ranked 10th nationally in fielding percentage (.984) and 12th in home runs (21).

Third baseman Kirby McMullen finished second on the team with a .458 on-base percentage, in large part due to his team-leading 14 walks. McMullen's 14 runs also ranked second on the team.

Prior to Florida

Following a seven-year professional playing career, Jeroloman entered the coaching ranks and accumulated eight seasons of collegiate coaching experience, including six years in the state of Florida, helping lead both Jacksonville and USF to NCAA Regional berths. He is also familiar with the Southeastern Conference, having started 170 games at shortstop for Auburn from 2002-04 before being drafted by the Boston Red Sox.

Jeroloman joined the Gators after spending the 2018 and 2019 seasons at South Florida, where he served as the lead assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. He primarily worked with the Bulls' hitters, infielders, outfielders and base running.

In 2019, Jeroloman was key in the development of senior first baseman Joe Genord, who earned First Team All-AAC honors after hitting .333 with 13 home runs and 52 RBI. In total, three players hit over .300 on the season, including redshirt sophomore Jake Sullivan, a converted catcher who became the Bulls' everyday third baseman and hit .340 over the team's last 31 games.

In his first season with the Bulls in 2018, USF had its highest finish in AAC history (2nd place) and earned a berth in the NCAA tournament. The offense led the nation with 2.49 doubles per game and finished second in the entire country with 147 doubles. Five hitters finished the season batting over .300 as USF broke conference offensive records in doubles, slugging percentage (.464), batting average (.296) and total bases (951). Six Bulls earned All-Conference honors, led by third baseman David Villar, who also earned Third Team All-America honors.

In four seasons coaching at Jacksonville, Jeroloman helped the Dolphins improve their win total each season, culminating in 2017 as JU went 36-23 and won its first regular season A-SUN Conference Championship in 11 years with a 16-5 record in league play.

Jeroloman served as Jacksonville's recruiting coordinator and primarily worked with the hitters, infielders, outfielders and catchers. In four seasons, he helped guide six position players to All-Conference honors and four freshmen to A-SUN All-Freshmen honors. In 2014, infielder Scott Schaub earned Third Team All-America honors from the NCBWA and finished fifth in the nation with a .407 batting average.

Under Jeroloman, the Dolphins were consistently near the top of the A-SUN in fielding percentage and hitting. In his four years, Jacksonville compiled a .299 batting average in conference play and hit over .300 in two seasons. In the same span, JU had a .975 fielding percentage in league games. In 2014, JU led the league in conference play in fielding percentage (.979). The team broke the school record for single-season fielding percentage in 2016 (.971).

Jeroloman joined the TCU staff under Jim Schlossnagle for the 2012-13 seasons and helped lead the Horned Frogs to the Mountain West title and NCAA Super Regional appearance in 2012. He worked primarily with TCU's hitters, infielders and catchers. In the second half of the 2012 season, he helped the team surge to a .294 batting average and .488 slugging percentage.

Following his playing career, Jeroloman entered the coaching ranks at Palm Beach Central High School (2008-11). In three seasons, every infielder and catcher he coached received a scholarship.

While at Auburn, Jeroloman was the starting shortstop for three seasons and played in 175 games, totaling 12 home runs and 91 RBI for the Tigers. He was selected in the 21st round of the 2004 MLB Draft by the Boston Red Sox and played four seasons in their organization, reaching as high as Triple-A Pawtucket. He also played four seasons of Independent baseball.

Born in Suffern, New York, Jeroloman attended Wellington High School in Wellington, Florida. Jeroloman and his wife, Tara, have three sons, Owen, Chase, and Brady. His brother, Brian, was a catcher for the Gators from 2004-06.

1st SEASON AT FLORIDA

TAYLOR BLACK ASSISTANT COACH

Taylor Black enters his first year on the Florida coaching staff after being announced as an assistant coach by Head Coach Kevin O'Sullivan on June 13, 2022.

In his short time in Gainesville, Black has quickly made an impact in Orange & Blue, both on the practice field and off of it. Black's position as an assistant coach includes playing a large role in recruiting, and Florida's 2023 freshman class was recently ranked No. 5 in the country while the transfer class came in at No. 7 (per D1Baseball).

Black comes equipped with Power Five college baseball coaching experience at NC State, although his most-recent stop was a four-plus year stint in the Detroit Tigers organization. After joining the Tigers as a scout in November 2017, Black transitioned into the role of East Coast Crosschecker in September 2019.

Prior to his work with the Tigers, Black served as an assistant coach at NC State from 2014-17. During his three seasons on staff, the Wolfpack went to three-straight NCAA Tournaments while turning in a 110-70 record. NC State batted .303 as a team in 2016 thanks to Black's contributions while hitting .271 or higher all three seasons. Black's presence also had a positive impact on the Wolfpack defensively, as evidenced by a combined .973 fielding percentage across his tenure.

Black also coached for the Wilmington Sharks of the Coastal Plain League in 2014, which serves as a developmental summer league for various college players. That followed a three-year professional career, as Black played for the Philadelphia Phillies' Single-A affiliate, the Williamsport Crosscutters, in 2011 before going on to compete for the independent Evansville Otters from 2012-13.

As a 16th round MLB Draft pick out of the University of Kentucky in 2011, Black started 110 of a possible 111 games for the Wildcats during his two years in Lexington from 2010-11. Across those two seasons, Black served as the team's starting shortstop while batting .297 with 15 home runs, two triples, 22 doubles, 87 runs, 75 RBI and 24 stolen bases.

2nd SEASON AT FLORIDA

DAVID KOPP VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Kopp enters his second year with the Florida baseball program in 2022-23, having been hired in July 2021.

In his debut season with the Gators in 2022, Kopp guided the transformation of right-handed reliever Blake Purnell, who became a Freshman All-American by season's end. After lowering his arm slot with the assistance of Kopp, Purnell went from throwing zero innings in 2021 to breaking out with a 3-3 record, four saves, 2.86 ERA and .258 BAA. He pitched in eight more games than the next closest Gator, totaling 50 1/3 innings across 36 appearances. Right-hander Brandon Neely also earned All-SEC Freshman Team honors under Kopp's watch, posting a 3-3 record, 3.76 ERA, .205 BAA and 74 strikeouts across 69 1/3 innings spanning 21 appearances (10 starts).

Most impressively, starting pitcher Brandon Sproat was tremendous for the Gators down the stretch in 2022, going 5-0 with a 1.59 ERA and .218 batting average against in his last six starts of the season. Sproat filled in valiantly following the season-ending injury to then-ace Hunter Barco, collecting ABCA/Rawlings Southeast All-Region Second Team honors with a 9-4 record, 3.41 ERA, .251 BAA and 82 strikeouts across 89 2/3 innings pitched.

Kopp came to the Gators from Florida Atlantic, where he spent the past four seasons as the Owls' pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. Across his four years at FAU, the Owls posted a 126-71-1 (.639) record, winning 30-plus games in each of his three-full seasons on staff and winning 40-plus games in both 2018 and 2019.

Within the conference, FAU went 59-30-1 (.661) during Kopp's tenure, claiming the Conference USA Championship in 2019 while reaching the NCAA Tournament two-consecutive years from 2018-19. Kopp also played a significant role in player development while at FAU, as seven Owls pitchers were selected in the MLB Draft from 2018-2021. Additionally, Kopp helped FAU pitchers combine for six separate All-Conference USA selections including closer Zach Schneider, who became the Owls' first-ever repeat All-American.

Prior to FAU, Kopp served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida Southern in 2017. In his lone season on staff, the Moccasins reached the postseason with a 35-17 record while registering the second-longest win streak in program history at 17 games. Kopps' Florida Southern pitching staff ranked first in the nation in strikeout-to-walk ratio.

Kopp spent the 2016 campaign as a student assistant coach with his alma mater, Clemson. The Tigers won the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in 2016, finishing the regular season ranked No. 7 in the country. Following the conclusion of the college season, Kopp gained further experience as the pitching coach of the Strasburg Express of the Valley Baseball League.

As a player at Clemson, Kopp powered the Tigers to three-consecutive NCAA Super Regional appearances from 2005-07, featuring one ACC Championship and one NCAA College World Series appearance. Across his three-year career, Kopp totaled a 16-8 record and 4.18 ERA over 288.1 innings pitched. In 2007, he worked to a 3.79 ERA across 99.2 frames, earning First Team All-ACC honors.

Following the 2007 season, Kopp was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals with the 71st overall pick in the second round of the MLB Draft. He went on to be named a Florida State League All-Star in 2009 and later the Texas League Pitcher of the Year for Double-A Springfield in 2010. In 2012, Kopp represented Team Israel in the World Baseball Classic.

Kopp wrapped up his professional career in 2014, pitching parts of eight seasons in the Minor Leagues. He accumulated 435.2 innings as a member of the Cardinals and Detroit Tigers organizations with a 4.59 career ERA.

MIKE RIVERA STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH

2016 All-SEC Second Team
2016 SEC All-Defensive Team
2015 Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American
2015 All-SEC Second Team
2015 SEC All-Freshman Team
2015 SEC Freshman of the Week (March 30)

Mike Rivera joined the UF coaching staff as a student assistant coach in January of 2022.

As a former Gators standout and a member of the 2017 National Championship team, Rivera returns to Gainesville after a five-year stint in professional baseball. Rivera made 177 starts in 180 career games at Florida from 2015-17, powering the Gators to an unprecedented 156-53 record (.746) and three College World Series trips during that span. Across 605 at bats, the sure-handed backstop slashed .253/.385/.343 with 15 homers, four triples, 27 doubles, 123 RBI and 87 runs.

In both 2015 and 2016, the Venice, Fla. native claimed All-SEC honors at catcher while being named to the SEC All-Defensive Team in the latter season. Rivera was excellent behind the plate and in the field for the duration of his time in Gainesville, posting a .996 fielding percentage over 1,198 chances. He committed just five errors in his three-year career, including one per season in 2015 and 2017.

Shortly after bringing a National Championship to Gator Nation, Rivera was drafted by the Cleveland Guardians with the 192nd overall pick in the sixth round of the 2017 MLB Draft. He spent parts of five seasons in the Minor Leagues with Cleveland, reaching the Triple-A level during the 2021-22 seasons. Rivera remained a reliable defensive presence throughout pro ball, as evidenced by a .993 fielding percentage at the catcher position and a 33% caught-stealing rate.

AS A JUNIOR (2017): Played in 47 games with 34 starts at catcher and 10 at designated hitter...Also started a game at first base and one at third base...Hit .238 on the year with 28 RBIs and three home runs...Missed a month of action with a broken hamate bone in his left hand...Hit .361 (13-for-36) in 11 SEC games before missing the rest of the conference season with the injury...Ended the season with a streak of 31 games reaching base safely...Had eight games with multiple RBIs, third-most on the team...Caught eight runners stealing in 22 attempts and also had two pickoffs...Selected in the sixth round of the 2017 MLB Draft by the Cleveland Indians (192 overall).

AS A SOPHOMORE (2016): Appeared in 67 games for the Gators, starting 66, mainly at catcher and DH...Hit .245 (56-229) with 47 RBI and 33 runs scored...20 of his 56 hits went for extra bases, including 9 home runs, 2 triples, and 9 doubles, good for a slugging percentage of .419...Walked 28 times to go along with 26 strikeouts, giving him an OBP of .347...Tied with Buddy Reed for the team lead in sacrifice bunts with 5...Ranked second on the team with 9 HBP...Hit .263 (26-99) in SEC play while starting all 29 SEC games...Slugged .434 against SEC competition, which ranked third on the team...Knocked in the Gators first two runs of the season with a sac fly and solo home run against Florida Gulf Coast...In the three game series against Tennessee, went 5-12 with 2 home runs and 6 RBI...Only committed 3 errors on the year, contributing to a fielding percentage of .994...Threw out 15 of 30 runners attempting to steal against him...Hit .389 (7-18) on the Gators' run to the SEC Tournament championship game...Had the second most games with multiple RBI on the team with 16...Named to the All-SEC Second Team...Earned All-SEC Defensive Team honors for his work behind the plate.

AS A FRESHMAN (2015): Earned Freshman All-American recognition from Louisville Slugger...Became the first Gator freshman catcher to be chosen All-SEC since Mike Stanley in 1982 by being named to the second team...Joined teammates Dalton Guthrie and JJ Schwarz on the SEC's All-Freshman Team...Started 65 of the 66 games he played in as a rookie, with 41 starts behind the plate and 24 at designated hitter...Batted .271 with 48 RBI, 31 runs, 16 walks, 11 doubles, five sacrifice flies and three homers...Contributed 15 multiple-hit games and 13 multiple-RBI efforts...Had a .258 average in 28 conference games, with a team-high 21 RBI, 12 runs, three doubles and a pair of homers...Led the Gators at the NCAA College World Series by going 7-for-18 (.389)...Tied the third meeting with Virginia by driving in Schwarz with a sixth-inning RBI single and was 2-for-4...Had an RBI single and a run-scoring double in the Gators' 10-5 triumph over the Cavaliers...Started his action in Omaha by going 2-for-3 with a pair of runs versus No. 8 Miami (FL)...Connected on a two-run single in the first inning and had a fielder's choice that plated Schwarz in the third inning in Game 1 of the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional against No. 10 Florida State...Drove in two runs in UF's NCAA Tourney opener versus Florida A&M with a fielder's choice and a sacrifice fly...Tied for the team lead with six RBI during the SEC Tournament, when he was 5-for-17 (.294), with three runs, three doubles and a round-tripper.

SHAWN BURKE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR 5th SEASON AT FLORIDA

Shawn Burke enters his second season as the strength and conditioning coordinator for the Florida baseball program and his fifth year overall at the University of Florida in 2022-23.

In his first season with the program in 2022, the Gators hit 121 home runs as a team – the second-highest total in program history. For the first time ever, two Gators hit 20-plus home runs in the same season: outfielders Wyatt Langford (26) and Jud Fabian (24). Langford's 26 home runs tied Matt LaPorta's team record set in 2005.

Over the past five years, Burke has worked with various Florida athletic programs including baseball, softball and men's tennis. Under his watch, Florida softball reached the 2019 College World Series and later claimed the 2021 SEC Championship. Burke also helped power men's tennis to a National Championship and SEC title in 2021, while Sam Riffice claimed the 2021 Singles National Championship. One year later in 2022, Burke produced another NCAA Singles National Champion in Ben Shelton, who was subsequently named the ITA National Player of the Year. Shortly thereafter, Shelton made the decision to turn pro and has been turning heads in the professional ranks in the months since.

Prior to his time at UF, Burke worked at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign from 2016-18, working with baseball, softball, men's gymnastics, women's gymnastics, women's soccer and cheer.

Throughout his career, Burke has trained over 30 active Minor League Baseball players. Additionally, he trained nine All-SEC selections and six All-America honorees in softball from 2019-21.

Burke also holds numerous certifications in his field. He holds status as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach from the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and is also certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Burke played collegiate football at the University of Rochester in New York, where he graduated in 2014 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He went on to earn a Master's degree in Exercise Science with a Strength and Conditioning Concentration from Concordia University-Chicago in 2018.

BUDDY MUNROE DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS 12th SEASON AT FLORIDA

Former Gators catcher Buddy Munroe is in his 11th season as the Director of Baseball Operations for the University of Florida baseball program following one season as the team's volunteer assistant coach. After being taken in the 22nd round of the 2009 Major League Baseball Draft by Minnesota with the 672nd choice, Munroe played two seasons with the Twins' minor league affiliates in Elizabethton (Tenn.) and Beloit (Wis.).

He manages UF's team travel arrangements by organizing flights, bus trips and hotel accommodations, oversees the budget and assists all members of the coaching staff in their day-to-day tasks and recruiting paperwork. Munroe's other responsibilities include serving as a game manager, coordinating maintenance within the $13-million-dollar facility, as well as hiring and managing the ushers for home games at McKethan Stadium. In addition, he is involved with everything related to the Gator baseball camps which are held several times per year.

His work helped the Gators reach the College World Series four years in a row (2015-18) and in 2017 helped the Gators win the program's first national title.

UF reached Regionals every year that he was on the coaching staff as a volunteer assistant and as a student assistant.

In helping Florida reach the 2009 NCAA Gainesville Super Regional as a junior, Munroe played in 51 games, starting 40 games behind the plate and four as the designated hitter. He hit .270 with 26 RBI, 23 runs, 11 walks, seven doubles and five homers and was 3-for-4 on the basepaths. In SEC play, Munroe batted .275 with 14 runs, 14 RBI and five doubles. Eight of his 25 hits in league play went for extra bases, as he had five doubles and three round-trippers. He started two of the three games at catcher during the NCAA Gainesville Regional and was 2-for-5 in the finale against Miami (FL), with an RBI grounder in the five-run first inning and he later doubled and scored in the third stanza. Munroe delivered the game-winning hit, a walk-off single with a one-out and the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth, to down Florida State on St. Patrick's Day, when he was 3-for-5 with two RBI.

During his sophomore season in 2008, Munroe started at catcher 32 times in 38 games played and batted .237 with 17 RBI. He scored 15 runs, with four doubles, three homers and three sacrifice flies. Munroe started every game of the series at Ole Miss and was second on the squad with a .400 (4-for-10) effort. He set a season high with three RBI and belted his first homer in the finale, when he was 2-for-3 and scored twice to help UF secure its first series victory in Oxford since 1997. Munroe joined the Gators after seeing action in five games as a rookie at Clemson.

Munroe earned his bachelor's degree in anthropology from Florida in 2013 and his master's degree in sport management with a minor in entrepreneurship in 2017.

JARRETT SCHWEIM BASEBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER 7th SEASON AT FLORIDA

Jarrett Schweim joined the Gators baseball program in the summer of 2019 after spending five years at UCF. It is his third stint at Florida, having worked with the football team for three years and attending undergrad at UF.

At UCF, Schweim served as the primary athletic trainer for men's basketball and men's golf team. Prior to his time in Orlando, he spent one year as an Associate Athletic Trainer at the University of Georgia. While with the Bulldogs, he worked exclusively with the men's basketball program.

Schweim spent three years on the Gators' athletic training staff from 2011-13 working directly with the Florida football team. Prior to his most recent time at Florida, he served three years -- the first two as a Graduate Assistant and the latter as a full-time Assistant Trainer in the athletics program at Ohio State University. He worked primarily with the Buckeyes' football and men's tennis teams.

A native of St. Augustine, Fla., Schweim is a 2006 graduate of the University of Florida, with a degree in Athletic Training. He earned his Master's degree in Allied Health Management from Ohio State in 2009.

Upon graduating from Florida, Schweim served a one-year internship as an Intern Athletic Trainer with the Gators' men's basketball team. During that time he worked with UCF Head Men's Basketball Coach Donnie Jones, who was then an assistant coach at Florida, and the Gators went on to win the NCAA championship.

Schweim and his wife, Emily, have one four-year-old son, Jack.

EDMUND BOYD ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT 17th SEASON AT FLORIDA

Edmund Boyd is in his 17th season as UF's Assistant Director of Athletic Equipment and is Gator Baseball's Equipment Manager, a position he undertook in December of 2006. His main responsibilities revolve around ordering and accounting all of Florida's baseball equipment while also directing actual game-day equipment efforts for the team. Boyd oversees a staff of six student managers and runs a state-of-the art area within the baseball complex which houses everything needed by the student-athletes.

A native of Fresno and then Ridgecrest, Calif., Boyd earned his bachelor's degree in administrative management in 1989 from the University of Arkansas and received his master's in recreation management from UA in 1990. From 1991-99, he worked in the intramural sports program at the University of Florida and assisted in game-day operations for the Gator baseball and football programs between 1991 and 2006. Boyd was also the Regional Manager for DeConna Ice Cream for six years spanning 2000-06. When not handling the baseball team's equipment needs, Boyd enjoys spending time with his four children, Tommy, Katherine, Penelope and Alexandra.

ANN HUGHES ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF STUDENT SERVICES 42nd SEASON AT FLORIDA

Ann Hughes is in her 42nd year at the University of Florida and is currently the Assistant Director of Student Services for the Office of Student Life. She coordinates housing and orientation for all of the Gator student-athletes, is responsible for international student-athlete services and assists with graduation studies. In addition to working as the Academic Counselor for the Gator baseball team for the past 24 years, Hughes also acts in the same capacity for the men's and women's golf student-athletes. When she started working with UF in 1981 as an Academic Counselor, Hughes was one of the first full-time academic counselors for female student-athletes in the nation.

Prior to coming to Florida, Hughes worked at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln as a graduate intern in 1981. She worked directly with the football and basketball student-athletes in academic advising and coordinating official visits for their recruits. In 1979, Hughes worked in San Diego, Calif., with the Aztec Athletic Foundation of San Diego State University and the Holiday Bowl. She also worked with the National Football League's Seattle Seahawks in 1977 as a Public Relations Assistant.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., Hughes graduated from the University of Washington in Seattle, where she received a bachelor's degree in history in 1978. She continued her education at Ohio University, earning her master's in education and sports administration in 1979. While at these institutions, Hughes also worked in their athletic departments as a student and graduate assistant in the athletics director's office. She has served on the Executive Board of the National Association of Athletic Advisors for Athletics and was awarded their Distinguished Service Award in 1997.

STEPHANIE HORVATH DIRECTOR OF SPORTS NUTRITION 5th SEASON AT FLORIDA

Stephanie Horvath joined the Gators staff after being hired as the Director of Sports Nutrition prior to the 2019 season. She serves as the team dietician for baseball and lacrosse.

Horvath arrived from Tennessee, where she served as the Director of Sports Nutrition from 2016 through 2019. Prior to that, Horvath was the Director of Sports Nutrition at the University of Illinois from 2015 to 2016. Horvath also has experience working as a Sports Nutrition Associate (2013-15) at Notre Dame and as a Sports Nutrition Grad Assistant at Virginia Tech (2011-13).

A native of South Bend, Ind., Horvath was a student-athlete for Indiana University rowing from 2005-09 where she received her bachelor's degree. She received master's degrees from Kent State and Virginia Tech.

Horvath is credentialed as a Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics (CSSD), a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and is a member of the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association.

She enjoys spending time with her three nieces and her Pitbull named Diamond.

ZACH CRONIN PLAYER DEVELOPMENT / DATA ANALYSIS 6th SEASON AT FLORIDA

Zach Cronin joined the UF baseball staff as the head of player development and data analysis in advance of the 2019 campaign. The 2023 season will be Cronin's fourth in his current role.

Cronin is responsible for collecting, organizing and providing a vast array of performance-related data and analysis for the coaching staff and players alike. This involves tracking pitch speeds, horitontal and vertical break, exit velocities, launch angles, sprint speeds and more. He also works to identify various trends in data as it relates to both the opposition and current Gators players.

As a native of Gainesville, Fla., Cronin graduated from Gainesville High School in 2013 and went on to attend the University of Florida. During his time as an undergraduate, he served as a student manager on Head Coach Kevin O'Sullivan's staff. Before latching on in player development and data analysis with the Florida Gators baseball program, he worked as a baseball operations intern at the University Athletic Association.

ORLANDO PRESCOTT PROGRAM ASSISTANT 2nd SEASON AT FLORIDA

Prescott joined the Gators baseball staff in Spring 2022 after working with the Texas Rangers from 2018-2022. Prescott served in a variety of roles with the Rangers. He was initially a youth academy coordinator (2018-2021) and later became the manager for academy baseball & softball operations (2022).

Additionally, Prescott was a community outreach intern for the Miami Marlins during the 2017 season.

This is Prescott's second stint with the Gators, as he previously worked as a baseball student manager (2012-2015) during his time in undergrad at the University of Florida while working on his bachelor's degree.

A native of Miami, Fla., Prescott graduated from the University of Florida in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

2022 SEASON IN REVIEW

2022 SEASON REVIEW

Concluding the year with a final record of 42-24 (15-15 SEC), Florida continued its program-best streak of 14-consecutive postseason appearances by hosting the 2022 NCAA Gainesville Regional. That streak represents the third-longest of its kind in the nation, while also marking the 18th time the Gators have hosted an NCAA Regional (37th appearance overall). In earning the No. 13 national seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, Florida achieved its 11th national seed in the last 13 seasons (excluding 2020) – more than any other program in the country.

The Gators posted a team slash line of .273/.368/.491 while hitting the secdond-most home runs in program history with 121 long balls. That power surge led to an increase of 45 points in slugging from last season. Florida also produced a .981 fielding percentage as a team, which ranked eighth nationally at the conclusion of the Gators' season. On the mound, UF pitchers turned in a 4.22 record, 16 saves, a .329 batting average against and 575 strikeouts in 587 innings of work.

2021 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- HOT FINISH: After opening the first 40 games of the season with a 23-17 record (.575) and 6-12 mark in SEC play, Florida went 19-7 (.731) down the stretch, winning the final four SEC series of the season (9-3) while posting a 13-5 record against SEC teams (including SEC Tournament). That featured a trip to the SEC Tournament Championship, as the Gators were one of two teams to make it to the SEC Tourney semifinals each of the last two years.

- POWER SURGE: The Gators hit 121 home runs as a team – the second-highest total in program history. For the first time ever, two Gators hit 20-plus home runs in the same season: outfielders Wyatt Langford (26) and Jud Fabian (24). Langford's 26 home runs tied Matt LaPorta's team record set in 2005. At the conclusion of Florida's season, the team's 121 hpome runs ranked fifth nationally.

- LANGFORD'S LEGENDARY YEAR: Outfielder Wyatt Langford tied Florida's single-season home run record while leading the SEC with 26 homers in 2022. Langford also paced the Gators in batting average (.355), on-base percentage (.447), slugging percentage (.719), hits (91), runs (73), RBI (63), triples (three) and total bases (184).

- SULLY WINS 600TH: Head Coach Kevin O'Sullivan won his 600th career game with a 13-6 win at Alabama on March 19. O'Sullivan finished the 2022 campaign with a 627-302 (.675) record, which ranks third in terms of winning percentage among active DI coaches.

- THE SPROAT OF SOMETHING NEW: Starting pitcher Brandon Sproat was tremendous for the Gators down the stretch, going 5-0 with a 1.59 ERA and .218 batting average against in his last six starts of the season. Sproat filled in valiantly following the season-ending injury to then-ace Hunter Barco, finishing with a 9-4 record, 3.41 ERA, .251 BAA and 82 strikeouts across 89 2/3 innings pitched.

- SIGNATURE DUBS: Florida's 2021 season resume featured signature-series victories at No. 22 Miami, vs. No. 2 Arkansas and vs. Florida State. The Gators also picked up ranked wins over No. 21 LSU, No. 5 texas A&M and No. 9 Oklahoma.

- RIOPELLE PACES SEC BACKSTOPS: Transfer catcher BT Riopelle impressed in his debut season in Orange & Blue, leading all SEC backstops with 15 home runs, 55 RBI and a .551 slugging percentage en route to All-SEC First Team honors.

- THOMPSON TANKS: Highlighted by his memorable, two-run walk-off home run over No. 20 Florida State on May 17, outfielder Sterlin Thompson turned in a sensational sophomore season at the plate. Across 254 at bats, Thompson batted .354/.443/.563 with a career-high 11 home runs, two triples, team-high 16 doubles, 59 runs, 51 RBI, 143 total bases and a team-high 10 steals.

- JUDDY JACKS: Outfielder Jud Fabian became the second Gator in program history to hit 20-or-more home runs in consecutive seasons alongside Brad Wilkerson, who accomplished the feat from 1997-98. Fabian followed his 20-homer 2021 campaign with a 24-homer season in 2022, which ranked second in the SEC behind Langford (26). Fabian concluded his UF career with 56 homers, which ranks third all-time in program history.

- NEELY DEALS: Right-hander Brandon Neely earned All-SEC Freshman Team honors, posting a 3-3 record, 3.76 ERA, .205 BAA and 74 strikeouts across 69 1/3 innings spanning 21 appearances (10 starts).

- PIECE OF BLAKE: Right-handed reliever Blake Purnell was named a Freshman All-American, breaking out with a 3-3 record, four saves, 2.86 ERA and .258 BAA. He pitched in eight more games than the next closest Gator, totaling 50 1/3 innings across 36 appearances.

- THE FINN IS IN: Freshman southpaw Carsten Finnvold turned in an all-time great outing in Florida's second-to-last game of the season. Entering with the bases loaded and no outs in the first inning, Finnvold proceeded to strand the bases loaded while retiring the first 16 batters he faced. Finnvold completed the game, firing nine innings of relief to earn the victory with just two runs allowed on five hits. He walked zero and struck out four.

COLLEGE WORLD SERIES TEAMS

1988

The 1988 Florida squad moved into the national spotlight by advancing to the College World Series for the first time in school history. A historic season for the Gator Baseball program included the 1988 SEC regular-season and tournament titles, the NCAA East Regional Crown, the first College World Series appearance in school history and a final national ranking of sixth by Collegiate Baseball.

"There's no way we're going to be satisfied with just the SEC Championship each year," stated UF coach Joe Arnold, who picked up his 500th career win and earned SEC Coach of the Year honors during the season.

The Gators, who were picked sixth in the SEC preseason coaches' poll, did not achieve success in the 1988 season without a few setbacks. Arnold's club lost its SEC Tourney opener to Georgia, 8-3, but then reeled off four-straight victories in three days, never allowing more than three runs in a game. The Gators battled back from the consolation bracket at the SEC Tournament to upend host Mississippi State twice to take home the championship. After dropping its NCAA Regional opener in Tallahassee, UF rebounded to post four wins in a row, knocking off host Florida State along the way, to seize the coveted NCAA East Regional trophy.

Florida established a school record with 48 wins against a schedule rated as the second-toughest in college baseball, including 31 games against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, the Gators re-wrote the record books, as they totaled 25 victories against SEC competition, combining the regular-season and league tourney contests.

1991 proved to be a campaign to remember, as the Gators bounced all the way back from a disappointing 29-30 showing the previous year in which they failed to make the postseason. Florida notched a school-record 51 wins, appeared in the school's second College World Series and registered a program-best third-place national finish. Entering the year, head coach Joe Arnold had high hopes for an improved performance. Arnold knew it, the team knew it and the fans knew it. Few people, however, could have predicted just how good things would be for the Gators in 1991.

Boasting solid pitching and timely hitting, the Gators powered their way to the SEC Tournament title with a 4-0 mark. Florida capped a near-flawless four-day run in Baton Rouge, La., by defeating top-seeded LSU, 8-4, for its fifth championship at the event.

Hosting the NCAA East Regional, the Gators returned to the friendly confines of McKethan Stadium at Perry Field as the number one seed. The Orange and Blue did not disappoint the home crowd either, going 4-0 to snag the Regional hardware. Right-hander John Burke twirled UF's first no-hitter in 13 years and Brent Killen belted a home run in the bottom of the ninth to nip Furman in the first round, 2-0. In game two, Marc Valdes tossed a 3-0 shutout against Jacksonville to keep the Gators in the winner's bracket. Consecutive triumphs over N.C. State, including a 3-2, 10-inning decision in the final, punched the ticket to Omaha.

At the College World Series, Florida eliminated top-seeded Florida State en route to a third-place finish. When all was said and done, the 1991 squad was recognized as one of the greatest in UF baseball history. Finishing 51-21 overall, the Gators were 16-8 during the SEC regular season and registered an eight-game winning streak spanning the SEC and NCAA Regional Tournaments to leave their own imprint of success on the program.

1996

The 1996 season was an eventful one for the Gators and was highlighted by the team's third appearance at the College World Series. Florida made the journey to Johnny Rosenblatt Stadium with a squad that returned just two players from its 25-man roster during the 1995 campaign. Head coach Andy Lopez's youthful contingent, sporting 19 freshmen among its 26 newcomers, entered the season out of the national polls. Unfazed, Florida set 33 offensive school records in 1996, produced 50 victories and claimed a share of the SEC regular-season title. Nicknamed the "Comeback Kids" after racking up 25 come-from-behind victories, the club overcame four-run deficits six times during the year.

The Gators won the SEC Eastern Division for the first time since 1992, split the SEC regular-season crown with Alabama and LSU and were the runner-up at the SEC Tournament. Florida made its 15th NCAA Tournament appearance in school history and hosted a Regional for the fourth time since 1989. UF cruised to a 7-0 shutout against Bucknell in its opener before turning back N.C. State, 12-9, in game two. The Gators stunned South Florida on Chuck Hazzard's solo shot in the 13th inning to advance to the regional championship game. Nursing a tenuous 3-2 lead, Florida sealed its spot in Omaha by exploding for nine runs in the bottom of the eighth inning during a 12-2 win over Massachusetts.

In its first action at the 1996 College World Series, Florida was staring defeat in the face before outfielder Brad Wilkerson cranked a grand slam to defeat Florida State, 5-2. Relegated to the consolation bracket following a 9-4 setback to LSU, designated hitter Chuck Hazzard blasted a pair of home runs and the Gators used the strong pitching of Tommy Bond to defeat Florida State, 6-3, for the second time in four days and oust the Seminoles. Next up for Lopez's charges was a rematch with LSU, a team that the Gators handled four-straight times during the regular season. However, it was the Bayou Bengals who would take a 2-1 decision on their way to the national championship.

Florida captured the 1998 Southeastern Conference regular-season title and advanced to the College World Series for the second time in three years while producing its best offensive season in school history. The Gators established three new standards and seven players hit 10 or more home runs during the season. UF's 41 regular-season wins tied a school record accomplished three previous times (1981, 1991 and 1996) and its 21 SEC victories matched the 1985 squad for most league wins. In addition, Florida won the outright conference title for the first time since 1988.

Florida entered its own NCAA Regional as the top seed and was the prohibitive favorite to advance from the six-team regional into the College World Series. UF entered the event with a 31-4 home record and had strung together a school-record 18 consecutive wins at McKethan Stadium earlier in the season.

The Gators took advantage of a boisterous home crowd and survived a scare from sixth-seeded Monmouth in the opening tilt to grab a 12-8 win on Mark Ellis' three-run double in the eighth. In its second outing, Florida tallied nine runs during the first two innings to overwhelm Richmond, 15-3. The day wasn't over for the Gators, as they were set to face Wake Forest, the only other undefeated team in the Regional, later in the day. Faced with a thin pitching staff, UF coach Andy Lopez used closer Josh Fogg for six-plus innings. The All-American entered the contest with two outs in the first and kept his squad on track for a 12-9 victory over the Demon Deacons.

With a CWS berth on the line, Florida advanced to Omaha with a 7-6 come-from-behind win over Illinois. The Gators rallied three times, from deficits of 2-0 (6th), 5-4 (8th) and 6-5 (11th), in front of a McKethan Stadium record crowd of 5,150 fans. Derek Nicholson's bases-loaded single in the bottom of the 11th triggered a massive celebration and sent the crowd into a state of delirium.

Florida entered the College World Series as the top seed for the first time in school history, bettering the previous high seed of No. 2 in 1996. SEC rival Mississippi State pulled off a 14-13 upset in the first game, sending the Gators into the elimination round. Although it held a 4-3 record in CWS do-or-die games and had taken its last three such affairs, UF saw its season end with a 12-10 loss to Southern California in 12 innings.

2005

With his club returning 18 letterwinners, including six position starters and eight pitchers, from a team that had earned the program's first NCAA Super Regional appearance, there was a heightened sense of optimism for fourth-year head coach Pat McMahon heading into the 2005 campaign. Voted third in the Eastern Division preseason poll by the SEC coaches and ranked 22nd according to Collegiate Baseball, the Gators surprised the prognosticators by earning their first league crown and later clinching a trip to Omaha for the first time since 1998.

Battling Tennessee down to the final weekend of the regular season, the Gators used a three-game sweep at Vanderbilt to nail down both the Eastern Division and overall SEC hardware, a double it had not turned in seven years. Seeded first at the SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala., UF rallied for a pair of wins over Arkansas (9-8) and Ole Miss (10-7) to remain in the winner's bracket. However, the Rebels came out ahead in the next two matchups to deny McMahon's team a chance at its first appearance in the final since 2000.

Rewarded with the seventh seed in the 64-team NCAA Tournament field, Florida hosted a Regional in Gainesville for the first time since 2002 and the seventh time in the program's existence. The Gators did not disappoint the home crowd, dispatching Stetson (8-3), North Carolina (5-2) and Notre Dame (23-3). Facing in-state rival Florida State in the Super Regional with a berth to the College World Series on the line, fan interest reached a fever pitch and resulted in the two biggest postseason crowds at McKethan Stadium.

Behind a complete-game gem from right-hander Tommy Boss, as well as consecutive home runs in the fifth inning by Brian Jeroloman, Brandon McArthur and Brian Leclerc, the Gators cruised to an 8-1 win to take the opener. In front of a McKethan Stadium record crowd of 5,698 fans the next night, UF used a four-run first inning and 8.1 innings from Alan Horne to defeat the Seminoles, 8-5.

Making their first journey to Johnny Rosenblatt Stadium since '98, Florida held off SEC rival Tennessee to begin the CWS, 6-4. Facing home state favorite Nebraska before a crowd of 26,813 fans, the second-highest attendance in the event's history, the Gators jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning on a two-run homer by Adam Davis and posted a 7-4 win.

Needing one win to advance to the best-of-three championship series, the Gators were stymied by Arizona State, 6-1. However, Florida overcame a 3-0 deficit to the Sun Devils the next day with six unanswered runs to set up a date with Texas. A two-run shot by Leclerc in the fourth frame narrowed the gap to 3-2 and Adam Davis connected on a three-run bomb the next inning to put UF on top to stay. Boss continued his excellence in the month of June with 5.2 innings of scoreless ball after Horne suffered an injury, raising his postseason mark to 3-0.

Shown outside of Rosenblatt Stadium before the 2005 NCAA College World Series, the Gators emerged victorious from their bracket and advanced to the final round against Texas.

Becoming the first SEC program to participate in the CWS Championship Series, Florida's dreams of a national title were dashed by Texas, 4-2 and 6-2. The Longhorns were unbeaten in Omaha on the way to their sixth NCAA title and second in the last four seasons.

2010

On the heels of its first Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title and NCAA Super Regional appearance in four years and a preseason ranking of seventh by Baseball America, Florida entered the 2010 campaign with heady expectations. Under third-year head coach Kevin O'Sullivan, the Gators delivered a memorable season that culminated with the program's sixth appearance at the College World Series in the final year of famed Rosenblatt Stadium.

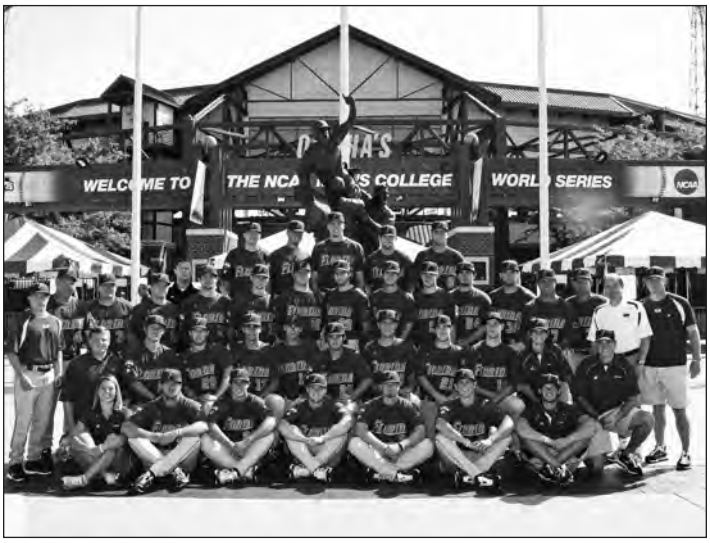
The Orange and Blue posted a 47-17 overall mark and brought home its 11th SEC crown, first since 2005, by turning in a school-best mark of 22-8 in league play. Guided by SEC Coach of the Year O'Sullivan, the Gators captured nine of their 10 league series, including the final eight in a row. Traveling to South Carolina on the last weekend of the regular season with the conference title hanging in the balance, Florida claimed the first two games over the Gamecocks, 3-2 and 5-2, to secure the championship.

After falling to LSU in the opening round of the SEC Tournament, the top-seeded Gators rebounded to eliminate Arkansas (5-4) and Vanderbilt (5-2) to reach the semifinals of the event for the first time in five years. Needing to defeat Alabama twice in order to advance to the title game, UF was ousted by a 5-2 score.

Soon after, Florida was awarded the third national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Gators swept the Gainesville Regional with victories over Bethune-Cookman (7-3), Oregon State (10-2) and Florida Atlantic (15-0) for their eighth Regional crown and second in a row. Left-hander/designated hitter Brian Johnson was named the event's Most Outstanding Player after firing seven scoreless innings in the Regional final against Florida Atlantic and hitting .625, while Tyler Thompson became the eighth player in school history to homer three times in a contest, first in the postseason.

In the opener of the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional, Alex Panteliodis went the distance for his first career complete game and established a personal best with 12 strikeouts as UF defeated Miami (Fla.), 7-2. The southpaw retired the final 14 Hurricane hitters of the contest and yielded three hits to register UF's first complete game since Stephen Locke accomplished the feat against Alabama on May 10, 2008.

The next night in front of a record crowd of 5,783 fans at McKethan Stadium, Austin Maddox delivered a two-out RBI double in the top of the 10th inning to drive in Nolan Fontana with the winning run as Florida upended Miami (Fla.), 4-3, to punch its sixth ticket to Omaha. The Gators dropped their opener at the College World Series to eventual runner-up UCLA and then succumbed to Florida State to see its season come to an end.



Florida earned the program's sixth trip to the NCAA College World Series in the final year of Rosenblatt Stadium in 2010. After winning the Southeastern Conference title, the Gators captured both the NCAA Gainesville Regional and Super Regional for the first time in five years en route to a consensus top-eight final ranking in the collegiate baseball polls.

Entering the season ranked No. 1 by Baseball America, Florida embraced the challenge of having a bull's-eye on its back as it aimed to make consecutive trips to the NCAA College World Series for the first time in school history. Head coach Kevin O'Sullivan directed the Gators to a spectacular performance that featured a runner-up finish in Omaha, a school-record 53 victories, a share of the SEC overall and Eastern Division championships, their first SEC Tournament crown since 1991, as well as both the Gainesville Regional and Super Regional titles. The fourth-year skipper became the first individual from UF to earn College Coach of the Year honors from Baseball America.

The Gators finished 53-19 overall and their 22-8 performance in league play matched South Carolina and Vanderbilt for the top spot in the standings, with all three East rivals advancing to the CWS. Florida captured its SEC-best 21st division championship and its 12th league championship rates third behind LSU (14) and Alabama (13). The Gators became the East winner for the third year in a row, matching their feat from 1996-98. O'Sullivan's squad claimed eight of its 10 SEC series and the team's 22 victories in league play matched the school record set last season.

At the SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala., Florida used a seventh-inning grand slam from Brian Johnson to turn a 5-2 deficit into a 7-5 victory over Mississippi State in the opening round and then relied on eight scoreless innings by Hudson Randall and four hits apiece from Daniel Pigott and Bryson Smith to blank Alabama, 6-0. After falling to Georgia, 4-3, the Gators secured their first appearance in the title game since 2000 when Nolan Fontana drove in Vickash Ramjit with the winning run in the ninth inning to post a 3-2 triumph in the rematch with the Bulldogs. Making his first start of the season against a league foe, Alex Panteliodis tossed 5.1 scoreless innings and the event's MVP Pigott went 2-for-3 with an RBI and a run scored as Florida collected its sixth SEC Tourney title, and ended a 20-year drought, with a 5-0 shutout of Vanderbilt.

The second national seed in the NCAA Tourney, the Gators cruised to their third-straight Gainesville Regional title by knocking off Manhattan (17-3) and then downing Miami (Fla.) by scores of 5-4 and 11-4 to oust the Hurricanes from the postseason for the third year in a row. Also picked in 2009, Preston Tucker became the first Gator to be chosen as Regional Most Outstanding Player twice in his career after hitting .500 (7-for-14), with 11 RBI, six runs, three homers and three doubles, while Fontana delivered a walk-off single in the bottom of ninth during the initial meeting with UM.

Facing league rival Mississippi State in what would become a classic Super Regional, the hosts provided Randall with 10 runs of support in the first five innings en route to an 11-1 victory in game one. The Bulldogs evened the series the next afternoon with a dramatic two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth for a 4-3 triumph, setting the stage for a winner-take-all showdown to determine which club would be heading to Omaha. With UF trailing 6-4 in the seventh, Tucker clubbed a go-ahead, three-run blast to straightaway center field, one of the club's season-high five homers. Tommy Toledo worked 2.1 innings and set down MSU in order in the ninth to preserve the 8-6 win and secure the Orange and Blue's seventh trip to the "Promised Land."

In its CWS opener at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, Florida overcame a 3-0 deficit against Texas All-American Taylor Jungmann to notch an 8-4 victory over the Longhorns. Randall yielded one earned run over 6.2 innings, Smith reached base in all five of his plate appearances and Cody Dent put UF ahead to stay with a two-out RBI double, the first two-bagger of his career.

Holding a 3-1 advantage over Vanderbilt in the winner's bracket contest courtesy of a three-run homer by Tucker, the game was suspended due to tornado sirens, heavy winds and torrential rains. Steven Rodriguez, who had entered the game prior to the delay, returned to the mound in the morning and wound up retiring 13 of the 14 batters he faced, with a career-high seven strikeouts over 4.1 scoreless and hitless innings in the 3-1 win. Meeting the Commodores for the sixth time on the campaign, the Gators snapped a 4-4 tie with an RBI single by Tucker in the bottom of the eighth and Austin Maddox provided 1.2 innings of shutout relief as Florida advanced to the CWS Championship Finals for the second time with a 6-4 victory.

Battling tooth and nail with defending national champion South Carolina, the Gators found themselves on the short end of a 2-1 margin in 11 innings in the opener. Randall had carried a shutout into the eighth inning before the Gamecocks tied the game on a two-out single. Despite a 3-for-3 performance and team-leading 19th homer by SEC Player of the Year Mike Zunino, USC claimed the title with a 5-2 victory in front of a record crowd of 26,721 fans.

Reaching the NCAA College World Series in consecutive seasons for the first time, the Gators made the CWS Championship Finals for the second time in the inaugural event held at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

2012

The nation's consensus top-ranked team in the various preseason polls, head coach Kevin O'Sullivan's fifth Gator squad blazed out of the gates with a 23-2 record and established a program-best winning streak of 18 games from Feb. 21-March 22 on its way to an unprecedented third-straight trip to the NCAA College World Series by the program.

Rated No. 1 for the first seven weeks of the regular season, as well as atop the final three polls prior to the NCAA College World Series, Florida finished 47-20 overall and tied for third in the SEC with an 18-12 mark after the league champion was not decided until the final day of action.

The Gators earned the top seed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history and swept through the Gainesville Regional for the fourth year in a row. In its Regional opener, UF blanked fourth-seeded Bethune-Cookman, 4-0, thanks to a no-hitter by Jonathon Crawford and a four-RBI effort by Regional Most Outstanding Player Casey Turgeon. The complete-game no-hitter was the first by a Gator since John Burke in 1991 and just the seventh in NCAA Tournament history. The Orange and Blue downed second-seeded Georgia Tech, 6-2, in a winner's bracket matchup on Saturday and then defeated the Yellow Jackets again on Sunday, 15-3, to lock up their 10th Regional title. Preston Tucker became the first UF player to be voted onto the Regional All-Tournament Team all four seasons of his career and was joined on the list by Crawford, Nolan Fontana, Turgeon and Mike Zunino.

Florida clinched its eighth trip to the CWS with a dramatic 9-8 win in 10 innings over NC State to sweep the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional at McKethan Stadium. With the game tied at 7-7 and UF the visiting team, Daniel Pigott clubbed a leadoff homer just over the right-field wall to give the Gators an 8-7 lead. After Turgeon collected his third hit of the contest with a base-hit into right field and was sacrificed to second by Justin Shafer, Josh Tobias sliced a two-out RBI single into right field to give the Gators a 9-7 advantage. The Wolfpack countered with a sacrifice fly in the bottom of the frame and Keenan Kish caught NCSU's Chris Diaz looking on strikes to record his first career save and secure UF's trip to Omaha. Hudson Randall had thrown seven shutout innings and Zunino drove in three runs and blasted a two-run homer as the Gators posted a 7-1 win in game one.

In a rematch of the 2011 CWS Championship Finals, the Gators dropped a 7-3 decision to South Carolina to begin action at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha and then saw their ninth-inning rally fall short against Kent State, 5-4. The top-10 finish in the final rankings marked the first time in school history that had occurred in three-straight seasons and the Gators' mark of 147-56 (.724) in that span is the best run in the program's existence.

Florida advanced to the NCAA College World Series for the third year in a row and the Orange and Blue posted a school-best record of 147-56 (.724) during that span.

2015

Kevin O'Sullivan's eighth year at Florida saw the Orange and Blue return to Omaha for the fourth time in his tenure and the squad reached the 50-win plateau for the fourth time in school history, twice in the past five seasons. The Gators finished 52-18 overall, one win shy of the College World Series Championship Finals, eliminated Sunshine State rivals Florida State and Miami from the postseason in the same campaign for the first time and used an impressive run to the SEC Tournament title as a springboard to sweeping the Regional and Super Regionals held at McKethan Stadium. UF was fourth in a jam-packed SEC race that came down to the final weekend and was the runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 19-11 league mark. After falling to fifth-seeded Arkansas, 7-6, in Hoover, Ala., the fourth-seeded Gators knocked off ninth-seeded Auburn (11-2), the Razorbacks in the rematch (10-0 in seven innings), top-seeded LSU (2-1) and second-seeded Vanderbilt (7-3) to secure the seventh SEC Tourney crown in school history, first since 2011. JJ Schwarz, who went 2-for-5 with a run scored versus the Commodores, was chosen as the Most Valuable Player of the SEC Tourney after batting .526 (10-for-19) over the five games, with six RBI, five runs and three doubles. Other members of the All-Tourney Team included first baseman Peter Alonso, right-hander Taylor Lewis, left-hander A.J. Puk and outfielder Buddy Reed.

The Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, becoming one of the top-eight national seeds for the sixth time in seven years, and swept through the Gainesville Regional. In its NCAA opener, Florida blanked fourth-seeded Florida A&M, 19-0, as right-handers Logan Shore, Frank Rubio and Shaun Anderson combined on a three-hit shutout and Regional Most Outstanding Player Schwarz went 4-for-5 and drove in five runs. The Orange and Blue handled third-seeded USF, 8-2, in a winner's bracket matchup on Saturday night behind seven shutout innings from Puk and two-run homers by Harrison Bader and Reed. UF then edged second-seeded Florida Atlantic on Sunday, 2-1, when Schwarz delivered the go-ahead RBI single in the sixth inning and right-hander Alex Faedo allowed one run over a career-high six innings. Bader, Puk, Reed and Jeremy Vasquez joined Schwarz on the All-Regional Team. Hosting Florida State in a Super Regional for the first time since 2005, the Gators overpowered the Seminoles by scores of 13-5 and 11-4 to secure their ninth appearance at the NCAA College World Series. The clubs set a two-game series attendance record at McKethan Stadium by drawing 11,481 fans. In the opener, Shore tossed 5.2 shutout innings and Mike Rivera and Josh Tobias drove in three runs apiece to lead an 11-hit outburst. UF burst out of the gates with four runs in the opening frame and had ballooned its margin to 13-0 in the seventh inning. Behind three RBI apiece from Bader and Schwarz, and a total of four homers, O'Sullivan's crew secured its journey to Omaha with a seven-run triumph. Schwarz belted a pair of homers to establish the program's single-season mark by a freshman and was 5-for-7 (.714) with six runs and five RBI in the two games. Bobby Poyner twirled five shutout innings in his final home appearance to collect the victory.

In its opener at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, the Gators erupted for 11 runs in the fourth inning and tallied 14 hits in a 15-3 victory over Miami. Alonso and Tobias each contributed three RBI, while Shore collected the win. After a 1-0 defeat to Virginia, Florida rebounded to oust the Hurricanes, 10-2, behind a barrage of four homers and a seven-strikeout performance by righty Alex Faedo. UF forced a rematch with the Cavaliers by scoring four runs in the third and five in the fifth on the way to a 10-5 victory. The Gators' season ended with a 5-4 setback to UVa, which captured its first national title by defeating Vanderbilt.

Florida had a record-breaking regular season and advanced to the College World Series for the 10th time in program history and the fifth time under Kevin O'Sullivan. The Gators finished with a 52-16 record, one win shy of the school record. UF's .765 win percentage was the highest since 1967 when the team went 28-8 (.778). In the regular season, the Gators reached uncharted waters -- recording a record 44 wins and reaching 40 wins faster than any team in school history (just 48 games). Florida finished unbeaten in midweek contests (14-0) and was 19-2 against in-state competition, including a 2-1 series win at No. 6 Miami and a 5-1 mark against Florida State. Florida set a school record with 29 straight home wins and finished 34-5 in McKethan Stadium.

After finishing second in the Southeastern Conference East Division, Florida played a marathon 14-inning game against No. 7 LSU to open the conference tournament. Despite losing the game 5-3, the Gators rallied to win three straight against Alabama (5-4), No. 3 Mississippi State (12-2) and LSU (1-0) to reach the SEC Tournament Final for the second year in a row. Florida's pitching depth ran out, however, and No. 2 Texas A&M won the final 12-5.

The Gators earned the No. 1 overall national seed, earning a national seed for the seventh time in nine seasons under O'Sullivan. In the NCAA Gainesville Regional, junior Logan Shore picked up a win over Bethune-Cookman (9-3) in the opening game after junior Peter Alonso blasted a pair of home runs to build a comfortable lead. In game two against Connecticut, freshman Jonathan India hit a solo home run in the eighth inning to propel UF to a 6-5 win over the Huskies. Sunday's Regional finale proved to be much smoother, as sophomore Alex Faedo took the mound and allowed just four hits and no runs in eight innings of work. Florida built a 10-0 lead before the Yellow Jackets scored a lone run in the ninth inning.

In the Super Regional, Florida matched up with in-state rival Florida State yet again. The Seminoles took the opening game with a 3-0 win behind starting pitcher Drew Carlton's two-hit shutout performance. The Gators rebounded in game two with Shore (8.0 IP, 2 H, 0 R) on the mound. Alonso and freshman Deacon Liput each had a pair of RBI in a 5-0 win. In Sunday's deciding game, a trio of junior pitchers -- A.J. Puk (3.2 IP, 1 H), Dane Dunning (4.1 IP, 4 H) and Shaun Anderson (1.0 IP, 0 H) -- combined for a shutout to lead the Gators back to the College World Series. A grand slam from sophomore JJ Schwarz in the fifth inning blew the game open as Florida won 7-0 to earn its berth in the CWS.

Florida's combination of pitching and defense -- UF led the SEC in both categories -- wasn't enough once they reached Omaha. In the opening game, Shore allowed just two runs but the Gators offense couldn't provide a lift as UF lost to eventual national champion Coastal Carolina 2-1. In the second game, Faedo's quality start (7.2 IP, 7 H, 2 R/ER) wasn't enough either as Florida lost 3-2 to Texas Tech. A two-run homer in the ninth from Alonso provided hope but it was too little too late.

The Gators reached the College World Series for the fifth time in seven years after shutting out Florida State in back-to-back Super Regional games.

2017

The 2017 Florida baseball team made history, winning the school's national title. With the title, the Gators became one of six schools to win a national championship in baseball, basketball and football, joining Cal, Michigan, Ohio State, Stanford and UCLA. The Gators are the only program to win a title in each sport in the last 50 years. UF won football titles in 1996, 2006 and 2008 and back-to-back basketball titles in 2006 and 2007.

Florida earned its sixth trip to the CWS in the past eight seasons. Only North Carolina (2006-13) has made six CWS appearances in an eight-year span since the tournament expanded in 1999. The Gators historic run in Omaha began with a matchup against TCU with a pair of aces on the mound. The Gators Alex Faedo won the duel, going seven shutout innings with just two hits allowed in a 3-0 win. JJ Schwarz gaves UF a 1-0 lead in the first inning. Christian Hicks and Nelson Maldonado each had RBI singles and Michael Byrne pitched two scoreless innings to clsoe the game. In the second game, Florida faced a vaunted Louisville lineup but Brady Singer was masterful, allowing just one run through seven innings of work. Austin Langworthy's solo home run in the third inning opened the scoring and the Gators never looked back. Deacon Liput's three-run shot extended the lead and Mike Rivera had a RBI double to make it 5-0. Nick Horvath and Tyler Dyson combined to work the final two innings to finish off a 5-1 victory.

The Gators stumbled in game three, falling 9-2 in a rematch with TCU, but bounced back with another shutout victory over the Horned Frogs. Facing elimination, Faedo got the ball again and matched his effort in game one with 7.1 scoreless innings before turning it over to Byrne for the save. Christian Hicks RBI double in the fifth gave UF a 2-0 lead and Liput capped the scoring with a RBI single. In Game 1 of the CWS Finals against LSU, Brady Singer struck out a CWS Finals record 12 batters over seven innings and Byrne notched his 19th save of the year with two scoreless innings at the end to finish off a 4-3 win. The Gators took a 3-0 lead on Jonathan India's double to center field in the fourth inning. After LSU got a pair of runs in the sixth, Rivera gave UF an insurance run with a RBI single to center.

With a championship on the line, Tyler Dyson was called upon to make his second career start and he did not disappoint. The freshman pitched six scoreless innings before giving up an infield single to start the seventh. Kevin O'Sullivan made the move to the bullpen and brought in Byrne with nine outs remaining. Josh Smith greeted Byrne with a double to right field that got LSU on the board and cut the Gators lead to one. A single from Jake Slaughter put runners on the corners for the Tigers with no outs, but a game-changing play kept the Gators lead intact. LSU catcher Michael Papierski grounder a ball to second and Liput flipped to Guthrie for an out at second. As Guthrie was turning the double play, Slaughter was called for runner's interference. The call forced the tying run to remain at third base and the Gators escaped the jam with a flyout from Beau Jordan. Byrne got into trouble again in the eighth inning after LSU led off with back-to-back singles that put runners on the corners. After striking out Antoine Duplantis, O'Sullivan made a move to the bullpen again and brought in Jackson Kowar. Greg Deichmann swung at the first pitch from Kowar and chopped a ball to first that Schwarz fielded and threw home to get the second out of the inning. Zach Watson flew out to center field to end the threat. Florida blew the game open in the bottom of the eighth. Jonathan India doubled into the left field corner to start a Gators' rally that produced four runs and clinched the victory. Liput's two-run single made it 5-1 and Schwarz capped it off with a sac fly to center field. Kowar worked a scoreless ninth inning for his first career save.

The 2017 Gators won the first national title in school history, sweeping LSU in the CWS Finals to claim the championship.

COLLEGE WORLD SERIES TEAMS

2018

The Gators made their seventh trip to Omaha this decade, becoming the only school to make seven trips in a decade this century. Florida made its fourth-straight trip to the College World Series, becoming just the fifth school to make it to Omaha four years in a row since the tournament expanded to 64 teams. Under head coach Kevin O'Sullivan, Florida has seven CWS appearances since 2008 -- two more than any other program in the country during that time frame (TCU next with 5 CWS trips). UF joins North Carolina as the only schools to advance to Omaha in seven straight Super Regional appearances.

Florida earned the No. 1 overall seed for the NCAA Tournament for third time in program history (also 2012, 2016); no other school has been the No. 1 seed three times. The Gators have earned a national seed nine times in the last 10 seasons under Coach O'Sullivan. Florida opened the 2018 College World Series against Texas Tech and ran into a potent offense. The Red Raiders notched five runs allowed (two earned) off Brady Singer in 6.1 innings and took advantage of some shaky Gators defense. Florida managed only five hits in the game and couldn't keep pace, losing 6-3 to fall into the loser's bracket.

Despite the rocky opener, Florida wasn't ready to go home. In game two against Texas, Jackson Kowar turned in perhaps the best performance of his career, striking out a career-high 13 with no runs allowed over 6.2 innings. His 13 strikeouts were the most ever by a UF pitcher at the CWS and the most by any pitcher in a CWS game since 2010. Meanwhile, the offense showed glimpses of its old self as Jonathan India had four RBI -- including a three-run homer -- in the Gators 6-1 win.

Florida had to face Texas Tech again in an elimination game and this time the offense was up to the challenge. The Gators built a 5-0 lead through six innings -- including a two-run homer from JJ Schwarz, the 50th of his career and UF's 100th of the season. The Red Raiders managed three runs in the seventh, but UF answered with three of their own in the eighth inning, including a RBI triple from freshman Brady Smith. Texas Tech attempted to rally again with three runs in the bottom of the eighth but Michael Byrne closed the door with 1.1 scoreless innings to pick up the save.

The Gators faced a familiar foe in yet another elimination game, taking on SEC rival Arkansas. The Hogs powerful offense proved to be too much as the UF bats went quiet. Singer surrendered four runs through five innings and Florida managed just two runs on three hits in the game as the season came to a close with a 5-2 loss.

Major League Baseball originally held January and June drafts as well as a late-summer selection of American Legion players (dropped after 1966). The January (eliminated in 1987) and June processes involved a secondary phase for previously drafted but unsigned players. That also was shelved in 1987. Teams unable to sign first-rounders were allotted a supplemental first-round pick the following June. The 2020 MLB Draft was shortened to five rounds due to the COVID-19 global pandemic. In 2021, the MLB Draft was moved to July in accordance with the MLB All-Star Break and lengthened to 20 rounds.

*Adrian Zabala, Kelly Prior (twice), Glen Pickren, Thomas Seybold, Jim Watkins, Bruce Crabbe, Scott Ruskin (twice), Jose Fernandez, Todd McCray, John Burke, Dave Majeski, Todd Johannes, Keith Ramsey, Ben Harrison, C.J. Smith, Jeff Corsaletti, Matt LaPorta, Avery Barnes, Kevin Chapman, Matt den Dekker, Tommy Toledo, Matt Campbell, Preston Tucker, Greg Larson, Karsten Whitson, JJ Schwarz and Deacon Liput were drafted multiple times because they did not originally sign.

TOTALS: 215 individuals drafted; 17 First-Round Draft Choices (23 including secondary phase); 25 Free Agents signed

*school record; note: the 2020 MLB Draft was shortened to five rounds due to the COVID-19 global pandemic

• Former Gator Josh Fogg started Game Three of the 2007 World Series for the Colorado Rockies against Boston but was on the hook for the defeat. The Red Sox went on to complete a four-game sweep the following night at Coors Field in Denver, 4-3, to capture their second championship in four years. Fogg finished 2-1 in the playoffs after posting wins over Philadelphia in the National League Division Series and Arizona in the N.L. Championship Series.

• Former Florida All-American David Eckstein appeared on the cover of the Nov. 6, 2006 issue of Sports Illustrated. A four-year standout for the Gators from 1994-97, he was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2006 World Series after helping the St. Louis Cardinals to a five-game triumph over the Detroit Tigers.

REMEMBERING COACH FULLER

Dave Fuller, who was the winningest baseball coach in University of Florida history prior to head coach Kevin O'Sullivan eclipsing his total of 556 wins in 2021, passed away in September 2009 at the age of 94.

"Coach Fuller's loyalty and dedication to the coaching profession, and his love of the University of Florida, will always be remembered," said UF Director of Athletics Jeremy Foley. "He had a significant positive influence on countless athletes, coaches and administrators."

Fuller guided the Gator baseball program from 1948-75, producing a record of 556-356-6 (.611) and SEC Championships in 1952, 1956 and 1962, and he was selected as SEC Coach of the Year all three years. His clubs also won four Eastern Division titles, and played in four NCAA Regional tournaments.

Coach Fuller is shown congratulating catcher Jerry Bilyk, who was the first Gator to achieve All-SEC status in back-to-back seasons when he accomplished the feat in 1955 and 1956.

He was also a member of the Gator football coaching staff for 29 years (1948-76), the longest run of any assistant coach in UF history. Fuller served in many capacities as head freshman coach, varsity assistant, head scout and a key recruiter under three head coaches, Bob Woodruff, Ray Graves and Doug Dickey.

Fuller's baseball teams produced 47 first-team All-SEC players, and All-Americans Bernie Parrish (1958), Perry McGriff (1959-60) and Tom Moore (1962-63). Six of his players went on to play in the Major Leagues, including Dennis Aust, Doug Corbett, William Graham, Roger Holt, Haywood Sullivan and Dale Willis.

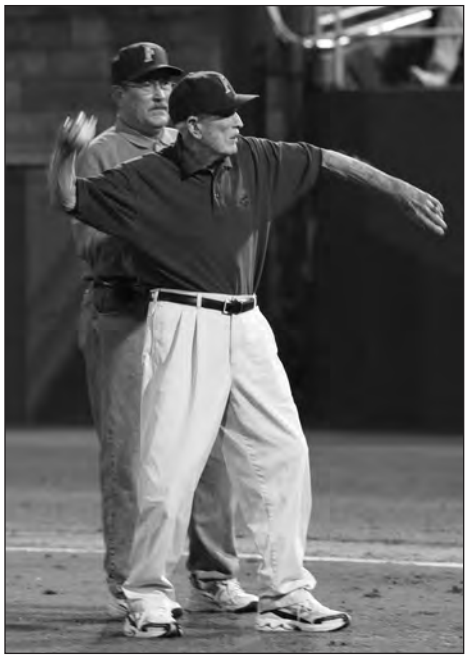
Gator head baseball coach Kevin O'Sullivan said: "There was no better ambassador for Florida baseball than Dave Fuller. What he accomplished during his legendary career with the Gators will never be forgotten and Coach Fuller embodied all that is best about Florida—loyalty, dedication and the pursuit of excellence. His life touched players, families, staff and alumni and his impact on our baseball program is immeasurable. Coach Fuller is a true representative of the Gator tradition and he will be missed."

During an unparalleled career directing the Gator baseball program, Fuller compiled a record of 557-354-6 (.611) and captured SEC Championships in 1952, 1956 and 1962.

A star athlete at Wake Forest, Fuller started for three seasons in football, basketball and baseball for the Demon Deacons. His greatest fame was in football, where he was a fullback-tailback. Following graduation, he played professional baseball with Portsmouth (Va.) of the Dixie League and Wilson (N.C.) and Goldsboro (N.C.) of the Coastal Plain League.

Fuller used to tell his friends that his inability to hit the curve ball encouraged him to get into coaching. His coaching background included: head football, basketball and baseball at Perquimans Co. High School, Hertford, N.C. (1940-41-42), backfield coach, Maryville (Mo.) Teachers College (1943—Navy V2 Program) and he joined the Gator staff following the end of World War II.

Fuller and his late wife Patricia had four children, daughter Pat, and sons Dave, Len and John all graduated from the University of Florida and also represented the Gators on the diamond. Dave lettered in baseball during the 1967-68 seasons, Len donned the Orange and Blue in both baseball and football in 1970-71, while John (1972-74) earned All-SEC and All-SEC Eastern Division recognition in his final two seasons at catcher.



Coach Fuller threw out the ceremonial first pitch prior to the Gators' 2008 season opener, a 10-7 victory in Kevin O'Sullivan's first game at the helm.

Fuller's tutelage with Florida's 1963 pitching staff resulted in a then-school-record 30 wins, a plateau that the squad did not reach again until 1977 (39-18).

1962 SEC CHAMPIONS, FIRST UF TEAM TO REACH NO. 1 NATIONALLY

Coming off a season in which they missed the postseason, the '62 Gators started the season slow, losing three of their first seven games. They took off and began their climb to the top of the national poll. Florida won 11 consecutive games to take control of the SEC East, heading into a two-game series at Auburn.

The trip to Auburn is one the surviving Gators still talk about as if yesterday. Florida's winning formula that season centered on solid pitching and an abundance of speed. The Gators led the nation in stolen bases, with Moore setting a UF single-game record of six against Georgia that still stands today.

However, the Gators failed to steal a base in losing back-to-back games to Auburn. They contend the Tigers and head coach Erk Russell, who later gained fame as Vince Dooley's defensive coordinator at Georgia, used an old trick to slow down the Gators' running game: they packed the basepaths with sand.

The Gators returned to full speed afterward to win their next seven games, including a victory over Mississippi State in the first game of the best-of-three SEC Championship Series. After losing the second game, Florida took the third game, 8-7, to claim the SEC title.

The 5-foot-8, 155-pound Moore was one of the team's standouts. He led the SEC with 26 stolen bases, batted .319, scored 34 runs, and drove in 25 runs in the regular season. Scheinhoft added 27 RBI and caught a capable pitching staff anchored by captain C.W. Price, Jerry Nicholson, Jim Biggart, Jim Elliott and Eddie Clarke.

The Gators may have lacked power, but centerfielder Al Lopez Jr. added 21 stolen bases and a dose of star power. Lopez Sr. managed the Chicago White Sox during the '62 season and led the Cleveland Indians (1954) and White Sox (1959) to the World Series when Lopez Jr. grew up. Lopez's father, Al Lopez, was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977.

Gators head coach Dave Fuller was in his 15th season as the UF baseball coach and served as head coach of the Gators first-year football team. Fuller was no stranger to success, but the 1962 Gators won 25 games to surpass the single-season school record of 21 set a decade earlier.

Fuller offered his assessment of what made the Gators special to an Orlando Sentinel reporter late in the season: "We've got two things going for us — pitching depth and speed," Fuller said.

The Gators entered the NCAA District 3 Regional in Gastonia, N.C., as the nation's No. 1-ranked team and a favorite to advance to Omaha. They opened the tournament with a 1-0 victory over Florida State behind a four-hit shutout by Price. The team's fortunes — and the weather — began to turn.

Rain dampened the rest of the double-elimination tournament, and in its second game, Florida lost 7-1 to Wake Forest, Fuller's alma mater. Later that day, the Gators returned to action and suffered a controversial 3-1 loss to Florida State in a five-inning game shortened due to weather.

The Gators threatened to rally and thought they had trimmed the lead to 3-2 on a sacrifice fly to left field by Jim Duncan, scoring Montgomery from third. But umpires ruled Montgomery had left third before the catch, nullifying the run

The disappointing end didn't linger. Most of the Gators went on to successful careers in business, politics, education and law. Together, they made history.

ONE OF COLLEGE BASEBALL'S UNBREAKABLE RECORDS

On their way to becoming 1962 SEC Champions, the Gators set a truly unbelievable record while taking the Bulldogs of Mississippi State. In the championship-clinching victory in game three on May 12, 1962, Florida successfully stole home three times. Without three successful steals of home, the Gators would not have prevailed by a final score of 8-7. This feet is believed to not only be a program record, but an SEC and NCAA record as well.

As a matter of fact, it is likely that the '62 Gators achieved not one, but three seperate records on that day. Florida actually scored four runs as a result of scripted stolen bases of home plays, as one such play was ruled an error by the official scorer despite the runner successfully coming into score from third. on top of that, three successful double-steal plays were converted on the aforementioned triumverate of steals of home

1. MOST BASE-RUNNING SCORES / THEFTS OF HOME IN A SINGLE GAME - 4
2. MOST STOLEN BASES OF HOME IN A SINGLE GAME - 3
3. MOST SUCCESSFUL RUN-SCORING DOUBLE-STEAL PLAYS IN A SINGLE GAME - 3

The steals of home were designed, practiced and executed to achieve a score under the direction of Coach Fuller. Four opportunities arose in the SEC title game and all four were successful. These feats, all UF school records, are unheralded by the NCAA and SEC. Tom Moore provided some of the details on how this took place in practice: "The 1962 UF baseball team matched up against the NCAA's No. 2 team in the Nation. Our opponent, Mississippi State, had an excellent defense. MSU deservedly placed five players on the All SEC team, including their catcher (a second team selection only because UF's catcher was the first team All SEC catcher). Not incidentally, our catcher was a very important participant (indeed critical) in our practices on double-steal-plays during the week prior to the SEC championship series. He was instrumental in making our best baserunners ready to try those risky plays against a very capable opponent. All of us knew that scoring the run was the offensive goal."

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The University of Florida has vaulted into the No. 1 ranking among the nation's college baseball teams. Arizona, the previous leader, has fallen to 13th.

Florida has 25-6 record for the season and is fresh from a victory over Mississippi State in a best of three game series for the Southeastern Conference championship.

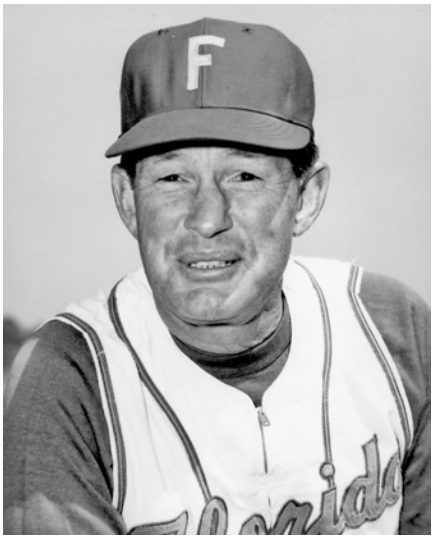
GATOR COACH HONORED

A plaque, presented in Gainesville by team captain C. W. Price (right), Jacksonville, was given to Coach Dave Fuller by members of his Southeastern Conference champion University of Florida baseball team. The plaque recognizes the championship and contains the names of all the team members.

THE FULLER LEGACY – MAXIMIZING THE 1962 TEAM'S POTENTIAL



Without Coach Dave Fuller's brilliance, insights, instincts and bold actions taken, the "stealing home" records set by his 1962 team of Gators (see pages 145-146) never would have become a stunning reality. This page sums up Coach Fuller's role in how those astounding feats came about, especially his actions just before the 1962 SEC title series began. This page does not repeat this Record Book's words on "Remembering Coach Fuller" (see page 115). It adds to that by focusing specifically on his keen interest and desire to shape and then weaponize his '62 players' speed and quickness.

He called upon the entire team to show through team effort that this "fastest team I've ever had" would excel in the SEC series. The 1962 Gators led the nation in stolen bases early and then for the entire season. Since the team's 50th and 60th reunions, speedy teammate Norbert Lado's story from the 1961 season became a starting point for talk about this team and Coach Fuller's boldness on "stealing home." In 1961, Fuller gave Lado the sign to steal home with two outs and a full count on the batter. The pitch was a strike that ended the inning. That's a prelude on Fuller and his 1962 team.

Fairly early in the season, Fuller gave third baseman Tom Moore the same direct order to steal home in the seventh inning against Georgia with two outs on a full count. This time, it was successful and was the winning run in UF's 5-4 win in Athens. Moore laughs about it today. That steal was his sixth stolen base that day, setting an SEC record for stolen bases in a game. He says that record would not exist but for both Coach Fuller telling him to steal at that moment AND the pitch was NOT a strike! Moore adds: "On every pitch after I stole third with one out, that pitcher ignored me and took a full windup. I have no doubt Coach Fuller saw that and thought it gave a fair chance for a straight steal of home." That slow windup in that situation is nearly extinct today.

When the Gators met Auburn on the Tigers' home turf, everyone knew about the base-running prowess of the UF team. Auburn was a threat to UF's lead in its division. What Auburn did was create its own home field advantage. They had beach sand trucked to their field and spread in the base paths from first to third. UF lost both games and had no stolen bases. Plus, Auburn picked off three UF runners in the 2-1 loss (one at secondnd, deep in the sand, with the bases loaded and two out).

Fuller planned ahead over the weekend for the SEC best-of-three title series, set to start in Gainesville the next Wednesday against Mississippi State, the NCAA's No. 2 team. On Monday and Tuesday, Fuller taught the entire team his scripted plays and told the runners to master them to the best of their ability. On both days, the entire team intensely both listened and learned about double-steal plays in different game situations. They practiced the execution - over and over. That involved almost every team member. Runners did not play defensive roles. Other teammates handled that. Florida catcher Len Scheinhoft, who was named an All-SEC First Team catcher, and other defensive players, worked as hard as the runners. Everyone learned the goal of each play: to score the runner on third base. The task: to work together to make any pair of UF's runners the best they could be at scoring. If they could score by causing an error, then they could perfect how to induce that as a skill. Fuller asked all runners to be ready to execute his signal to any pair of them to score the runner on third, if and when called upon to do so.

In Game 1, the No. 3 Gators won, 8-3, with no double-steal-play opportunities. The series shifted to Starkville, Mississippi. The hosts tied the series with a 3-2 Friday win, with no UF opportunities for any double-steal plays. Game 3 for the SEC crown was a different story. Florida won, 8-7, with four base-running scores by its runners on third. UF successfully executed three double-steal plays and a straight steal on the surprising four chances that Fuller seized for them to do so. The one run attributed to a defensive error merely proved the success of that play. Surely no one, not even Dave Fuller, ever dreamed of such a dramatic scenario. Page 146 presents these formidable records as among college baseball's most unbreakable. All Gators wish Coach Fuller had lived to see these old unheralded feats become classic records.
